The human figure as an art form has been with us since the beginning of recorded history, and no doubt will stay with us into eternity. No other subject can provide such a technical challenge for the artist nor evoke so full a range of feeling and meaning when viewed by the layman.

Unfortunately, photographic documentation of the human figure is not balanced. A wealth of material depicting the female figure is available from countless sources; but the male figure is unjustly neglected and avoided. To help fill this gap, we offer this publication devoted to the male figure, both covered and nude.

It is our conviction that the human body is clean and wholesome and should be viewed with esteem and serenity when seen in its totality. Man's body—in all its infinite variations—was created in God's image, and He created all things good. So long as there are lovers of beauty, there will be reproductions of the human figure, whether it be in stone, in paint, in ink, or on film.

If you enjoy this publication, tell your friends about it.

Being an Aris, BILL ROBERTS is all fire and damnation. He says he is going to be a pilot, and just needs 40 hours more in flying time. In order to know as much as he can before going to aviation school, Bill works at the airport as a mechanic and plane jockey. From his picture its easy to see why he was chosen as cover model. With his good looks, well-formed body, and everything else he has going for him he should make a handsome pilot.

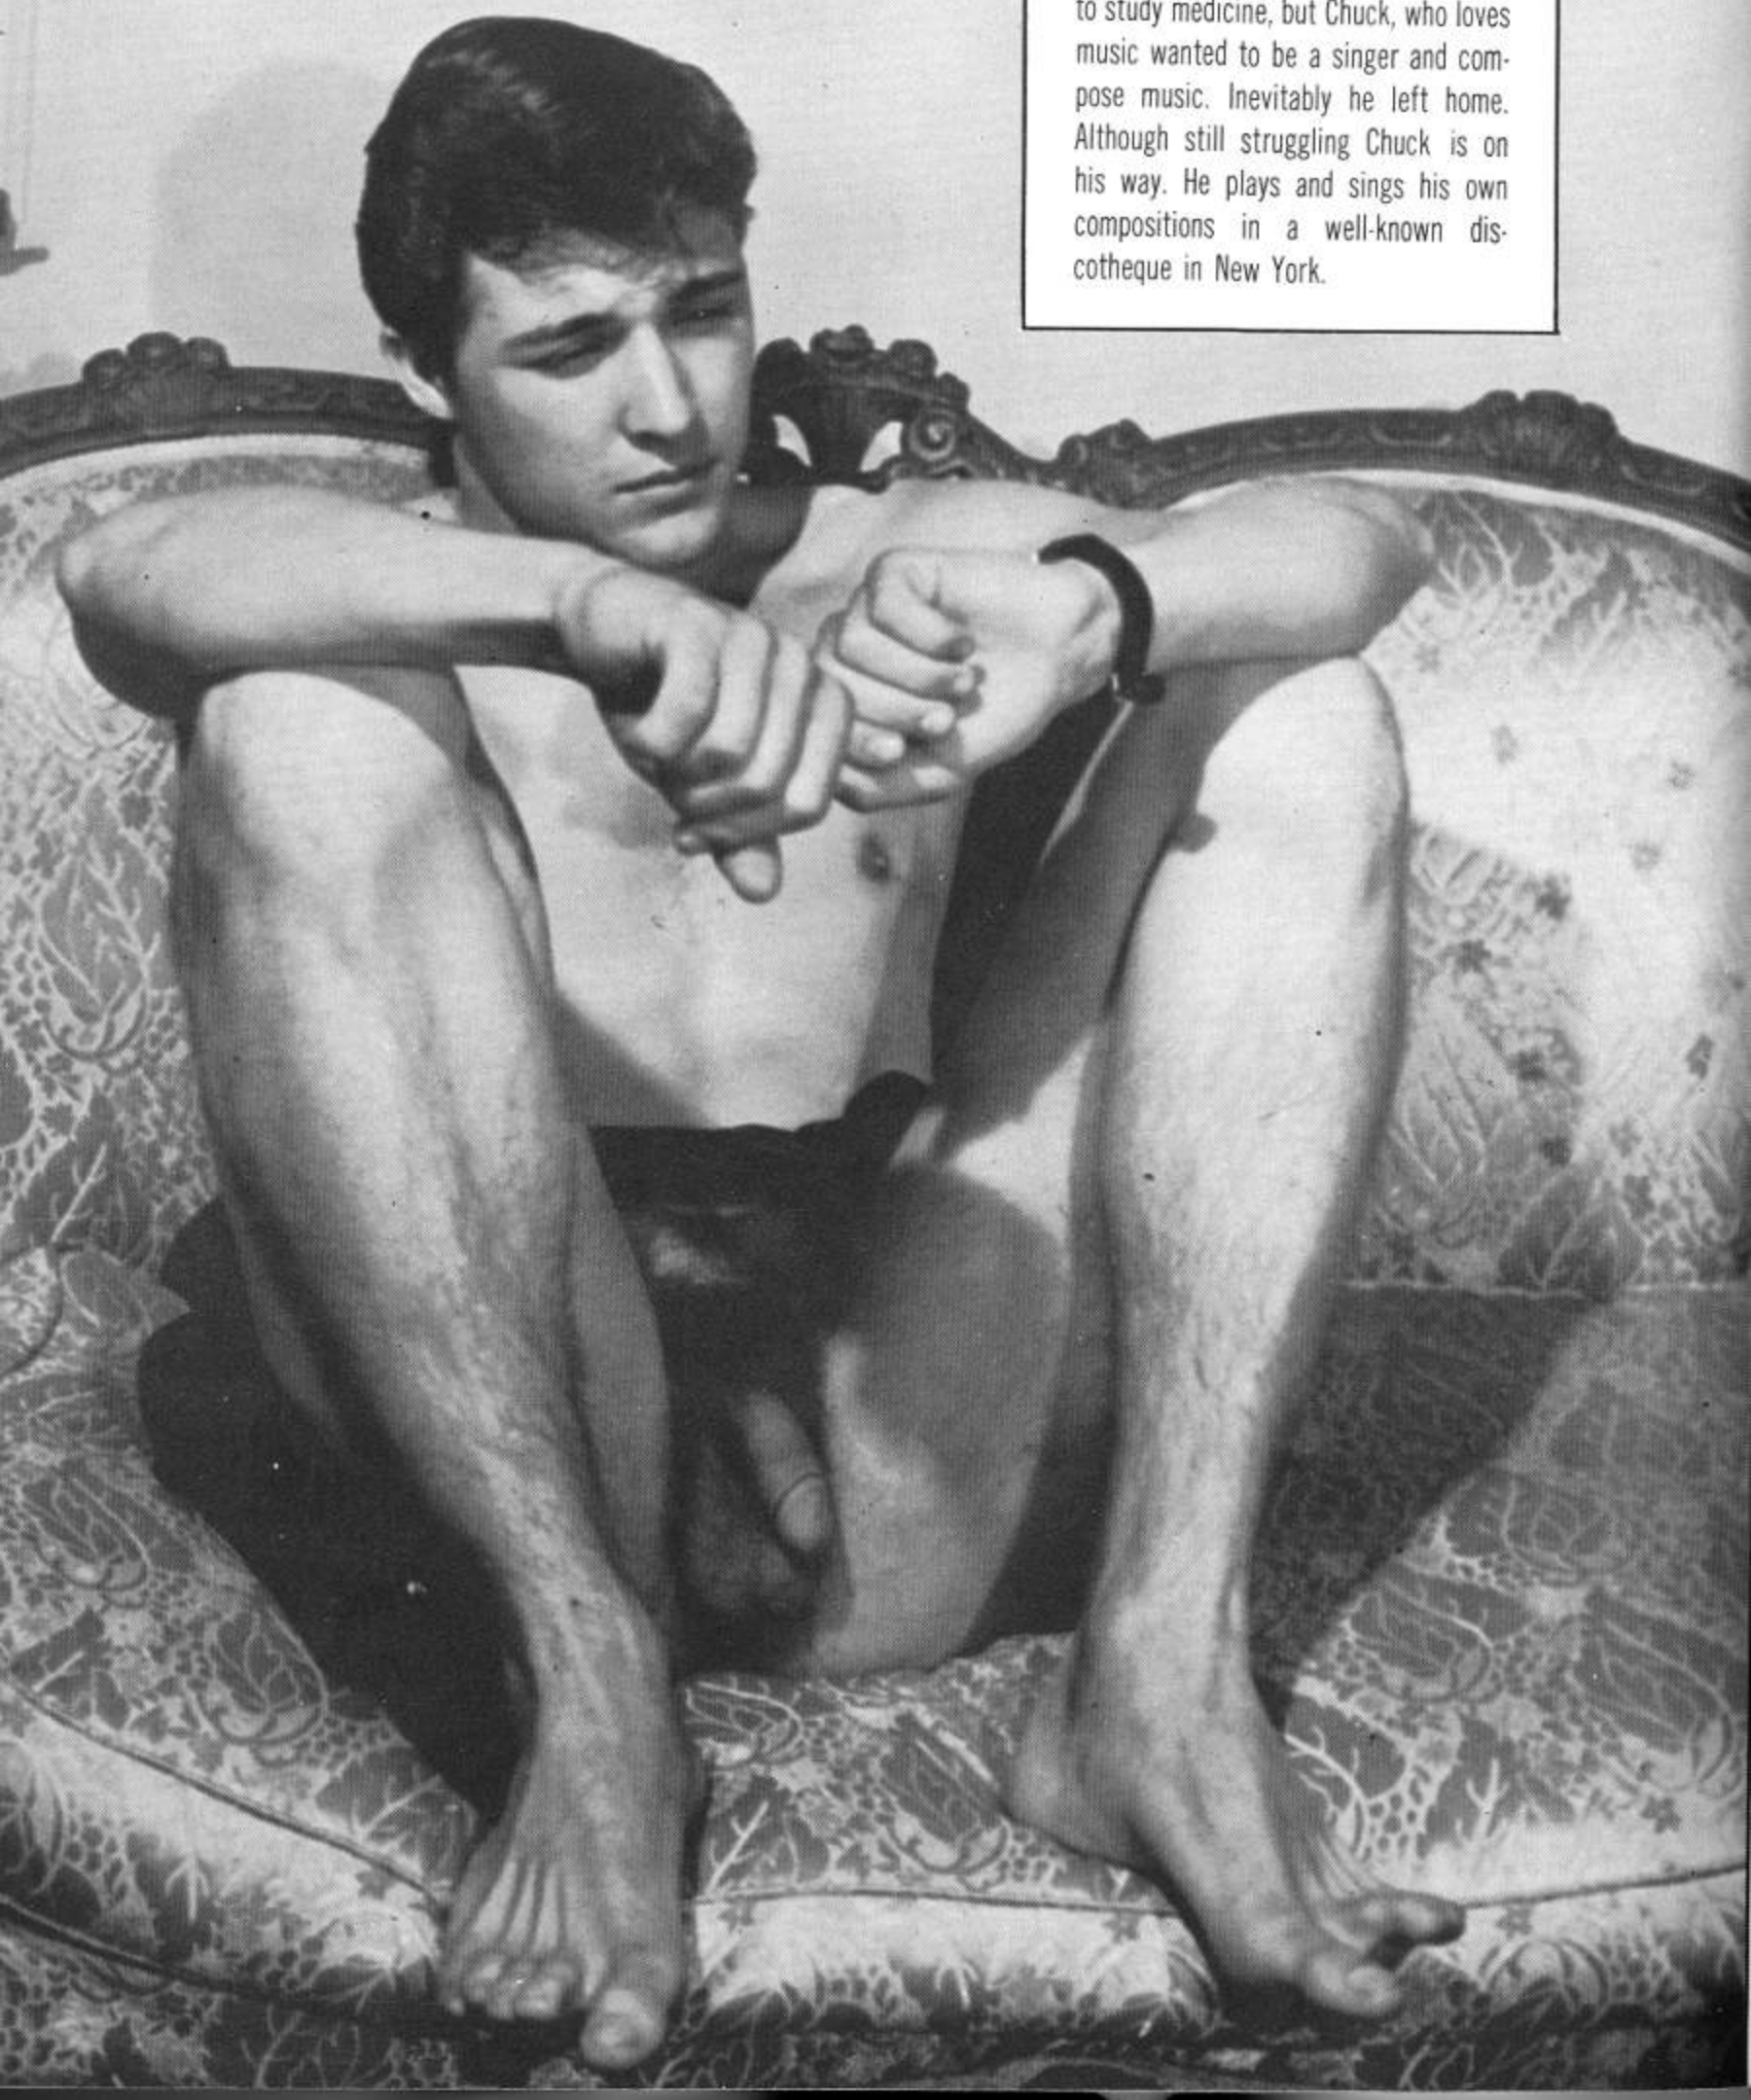

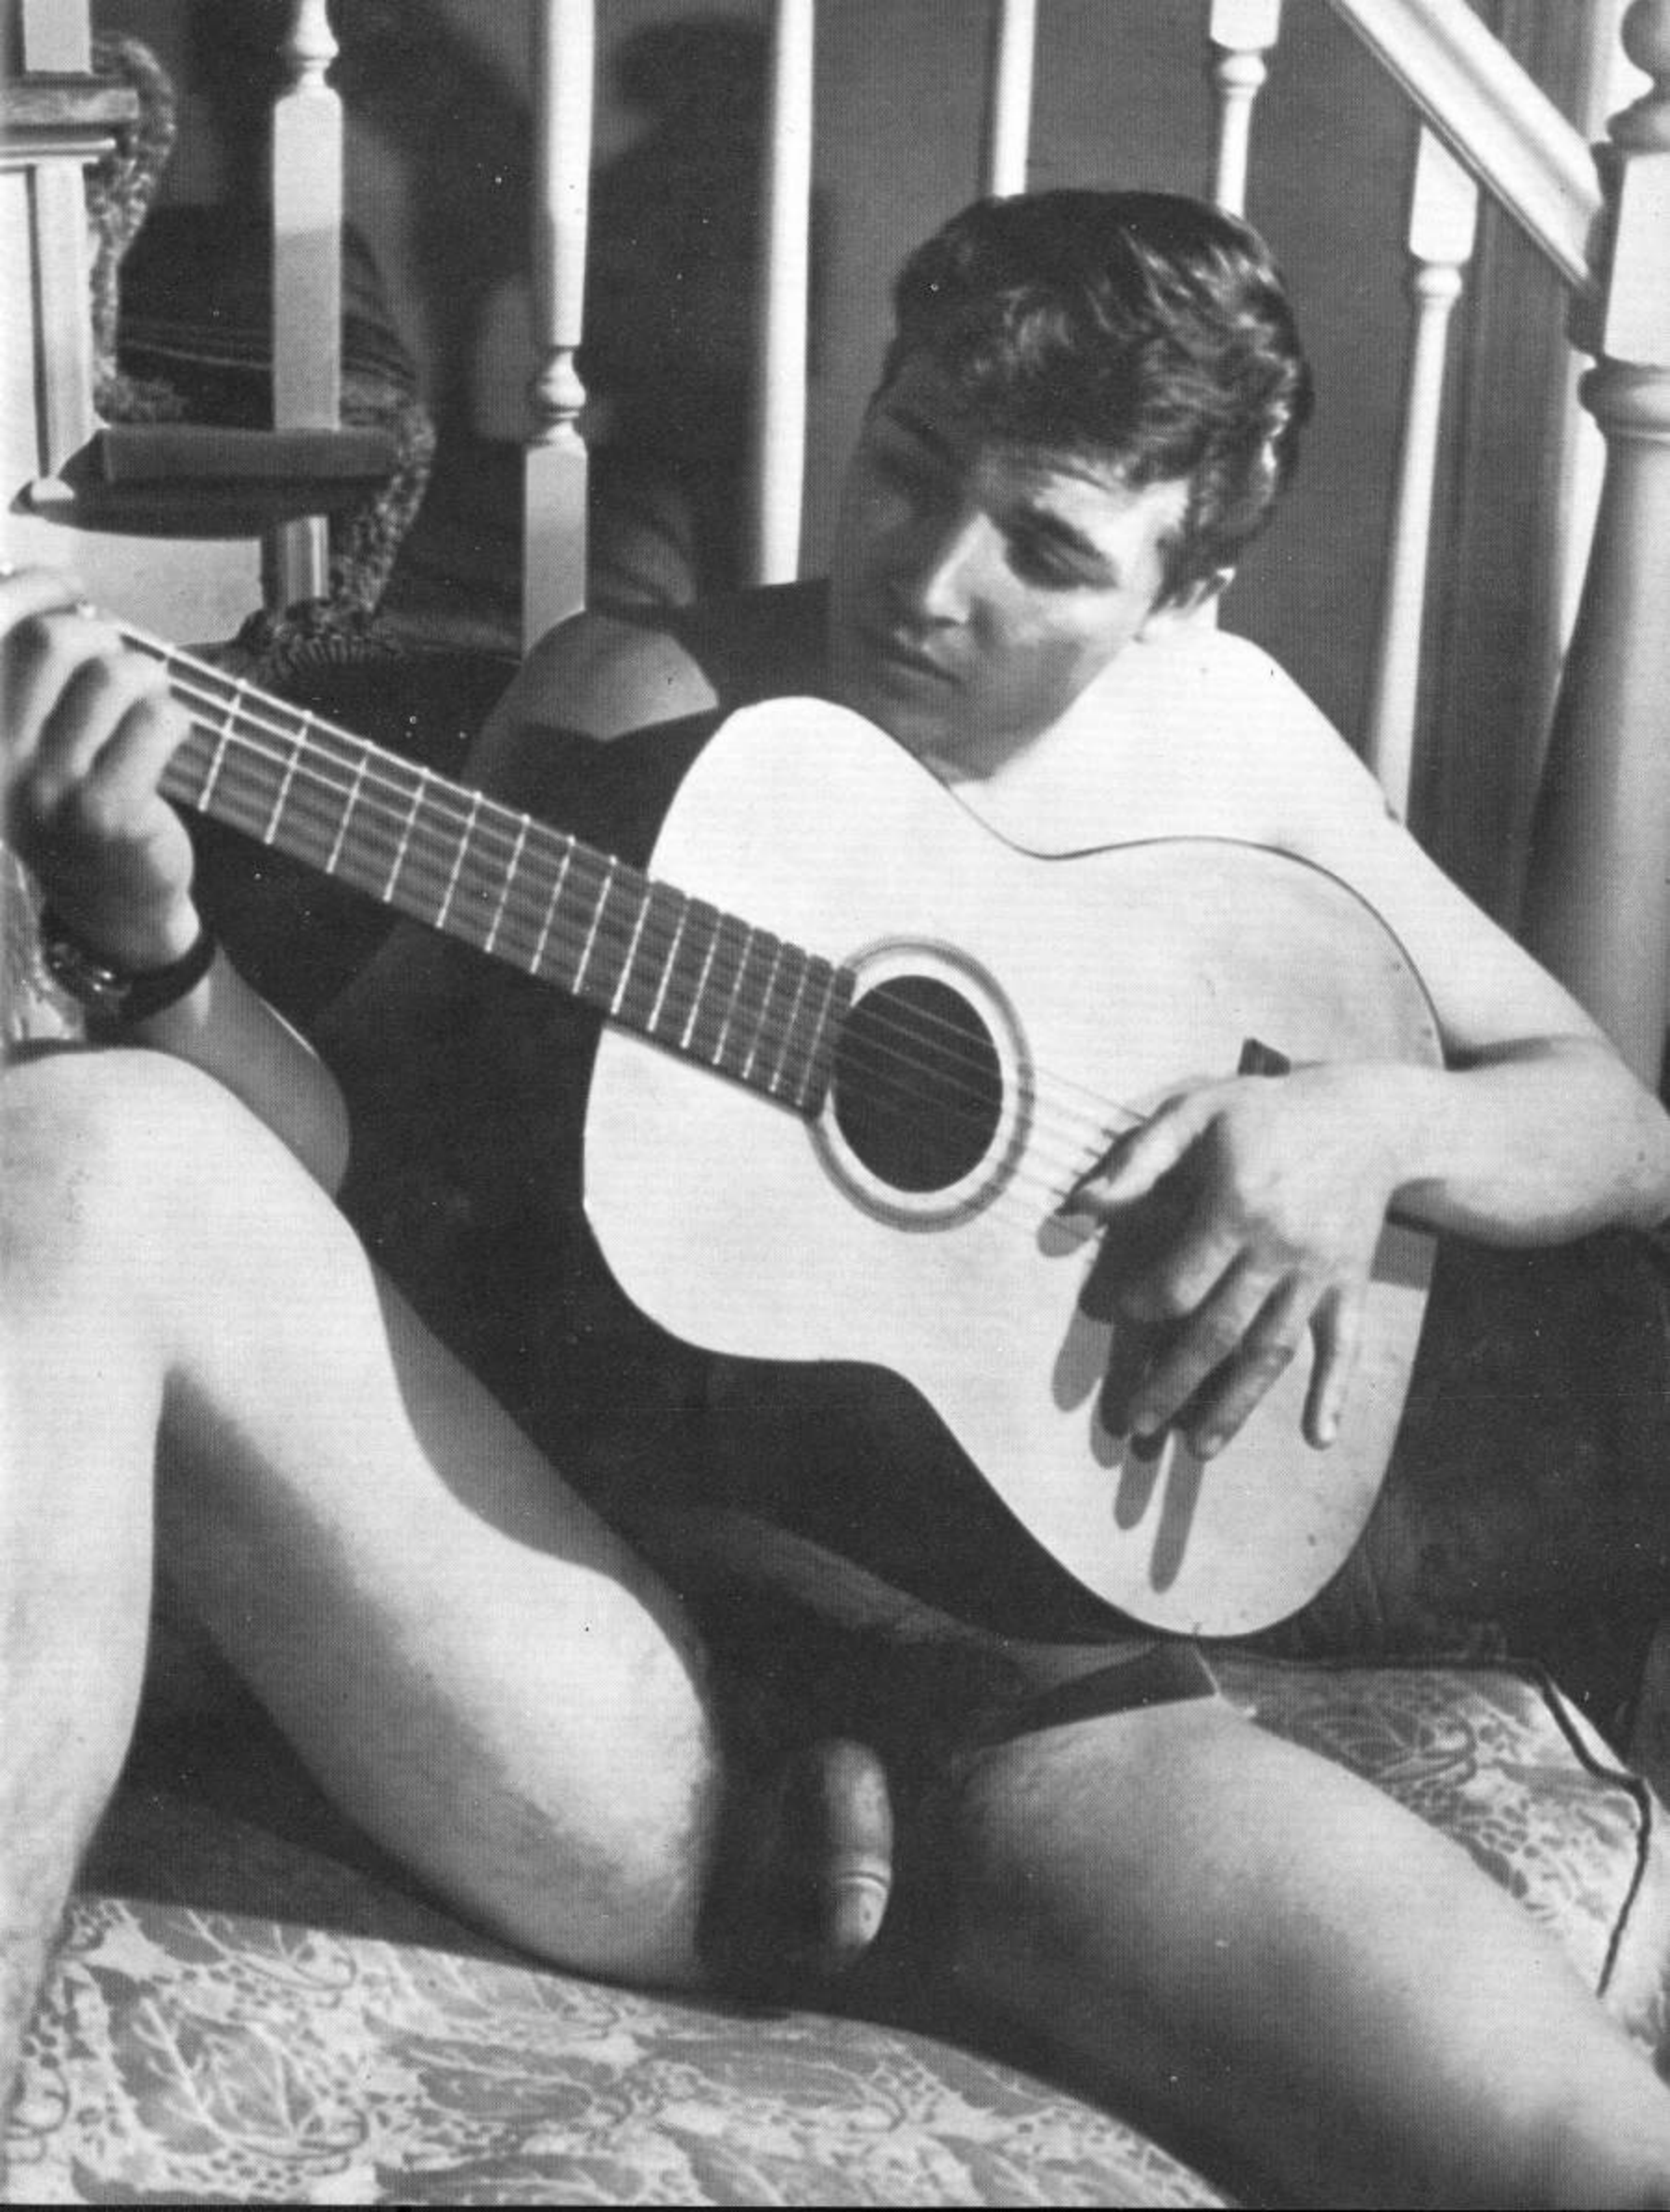

For those who like quiet people we have BOB CLARK, whose birth sign is Cancer. Bob likes to write and has already sold two stories. He says he is now working on an avante garde type play which is better than the much publicized play, "The Beard."

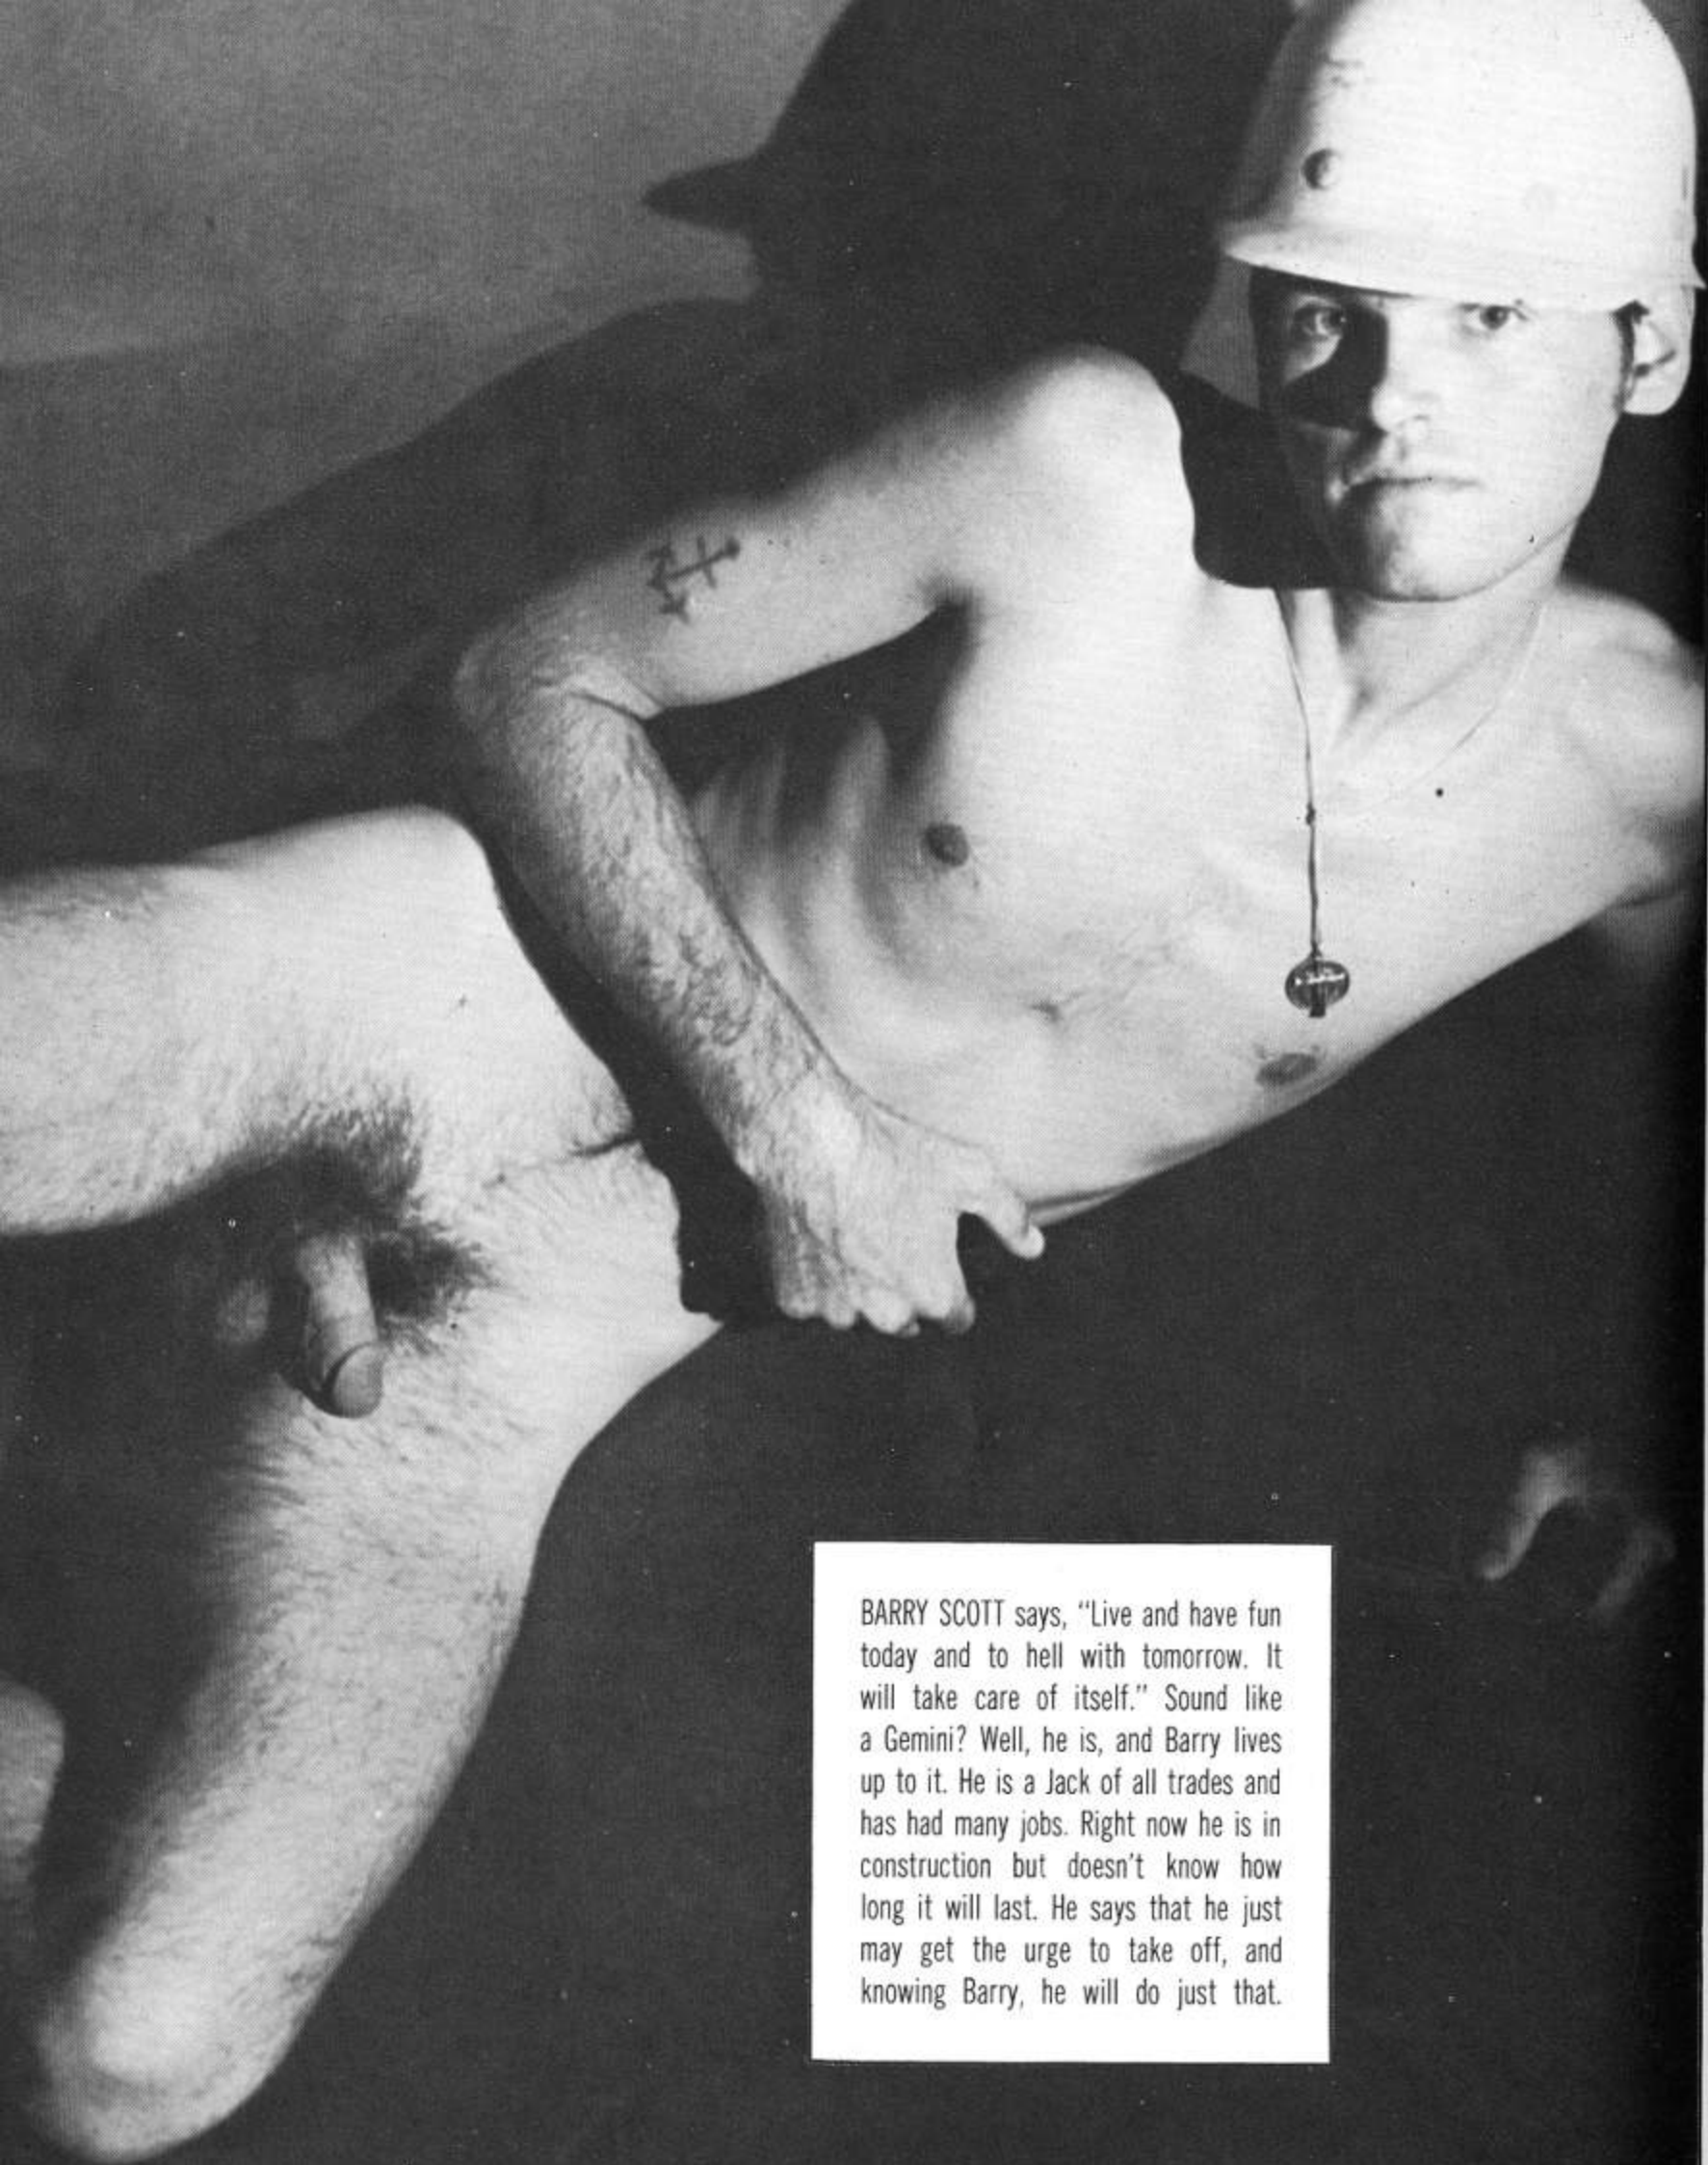

Being stubborn is a trait of Tarius the bull, and this trait belongs to CHUCK BURTON. Chuck's parents wanted him to study medicine, but Chuck, who loves music wanted to be a singer and compose music. Inevitably he left home. Although still struggling Chuck is on his way. He plays and sings his own compositions in a well-known discotheque in New York.

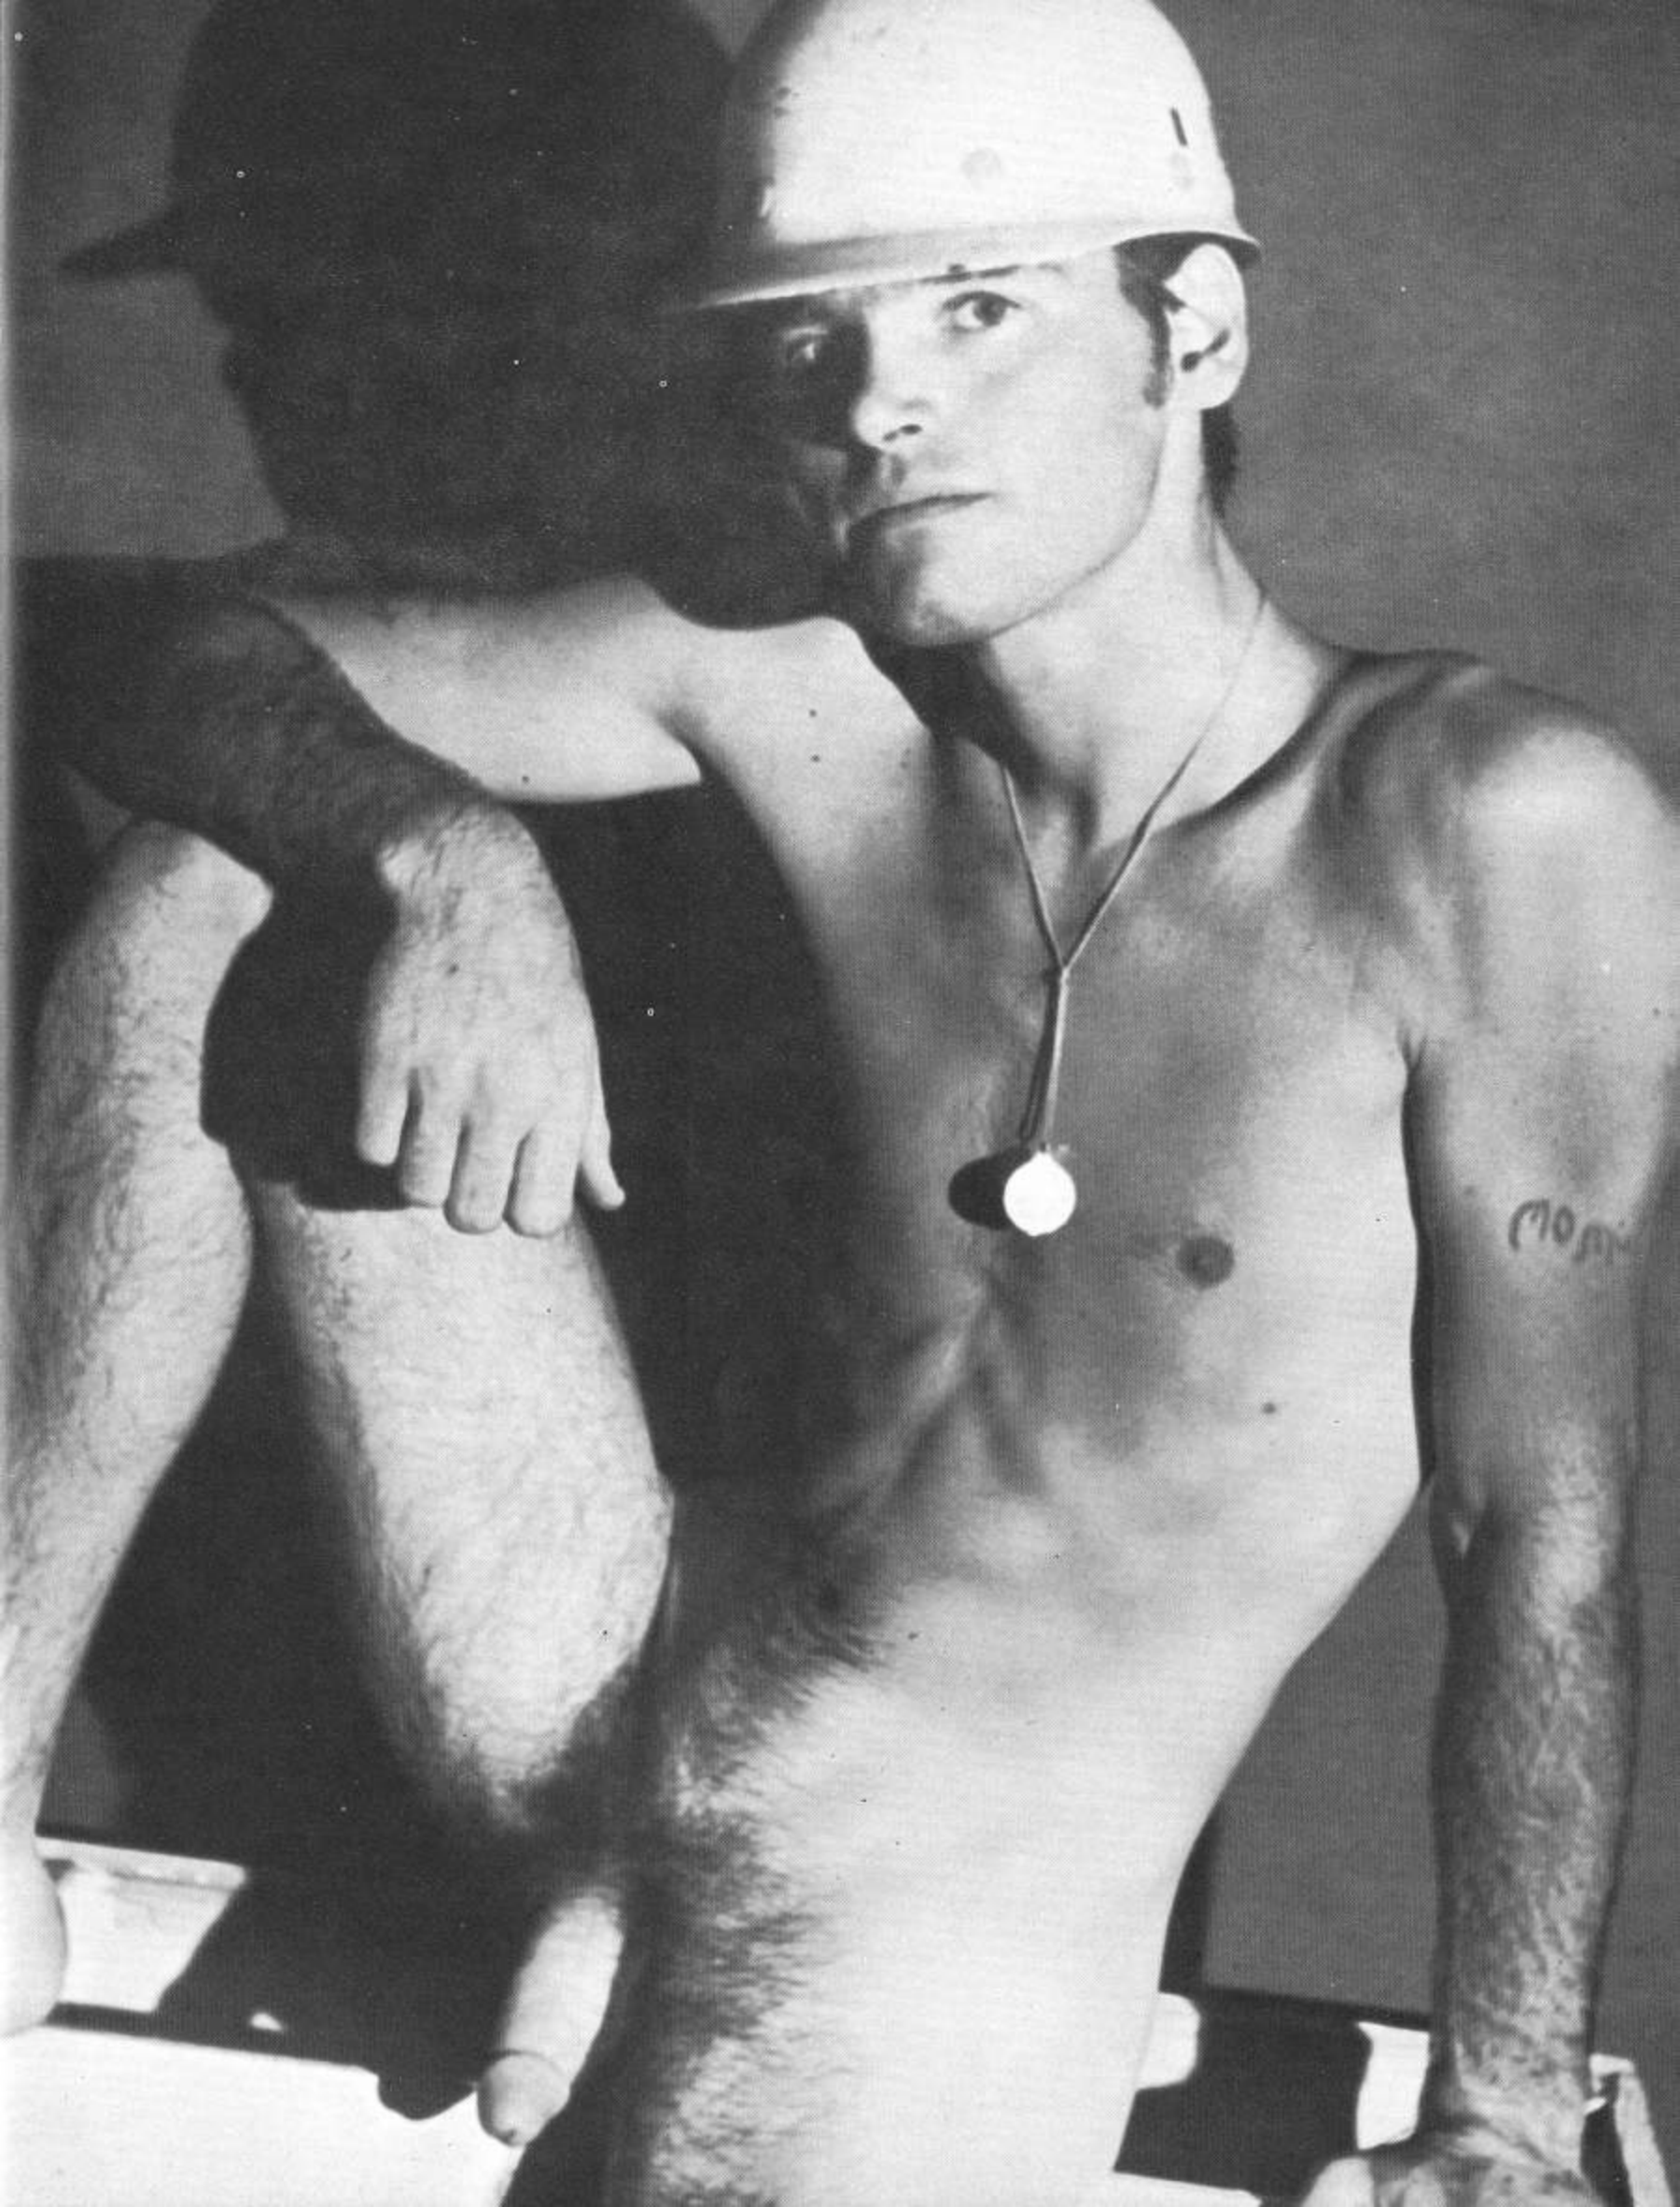

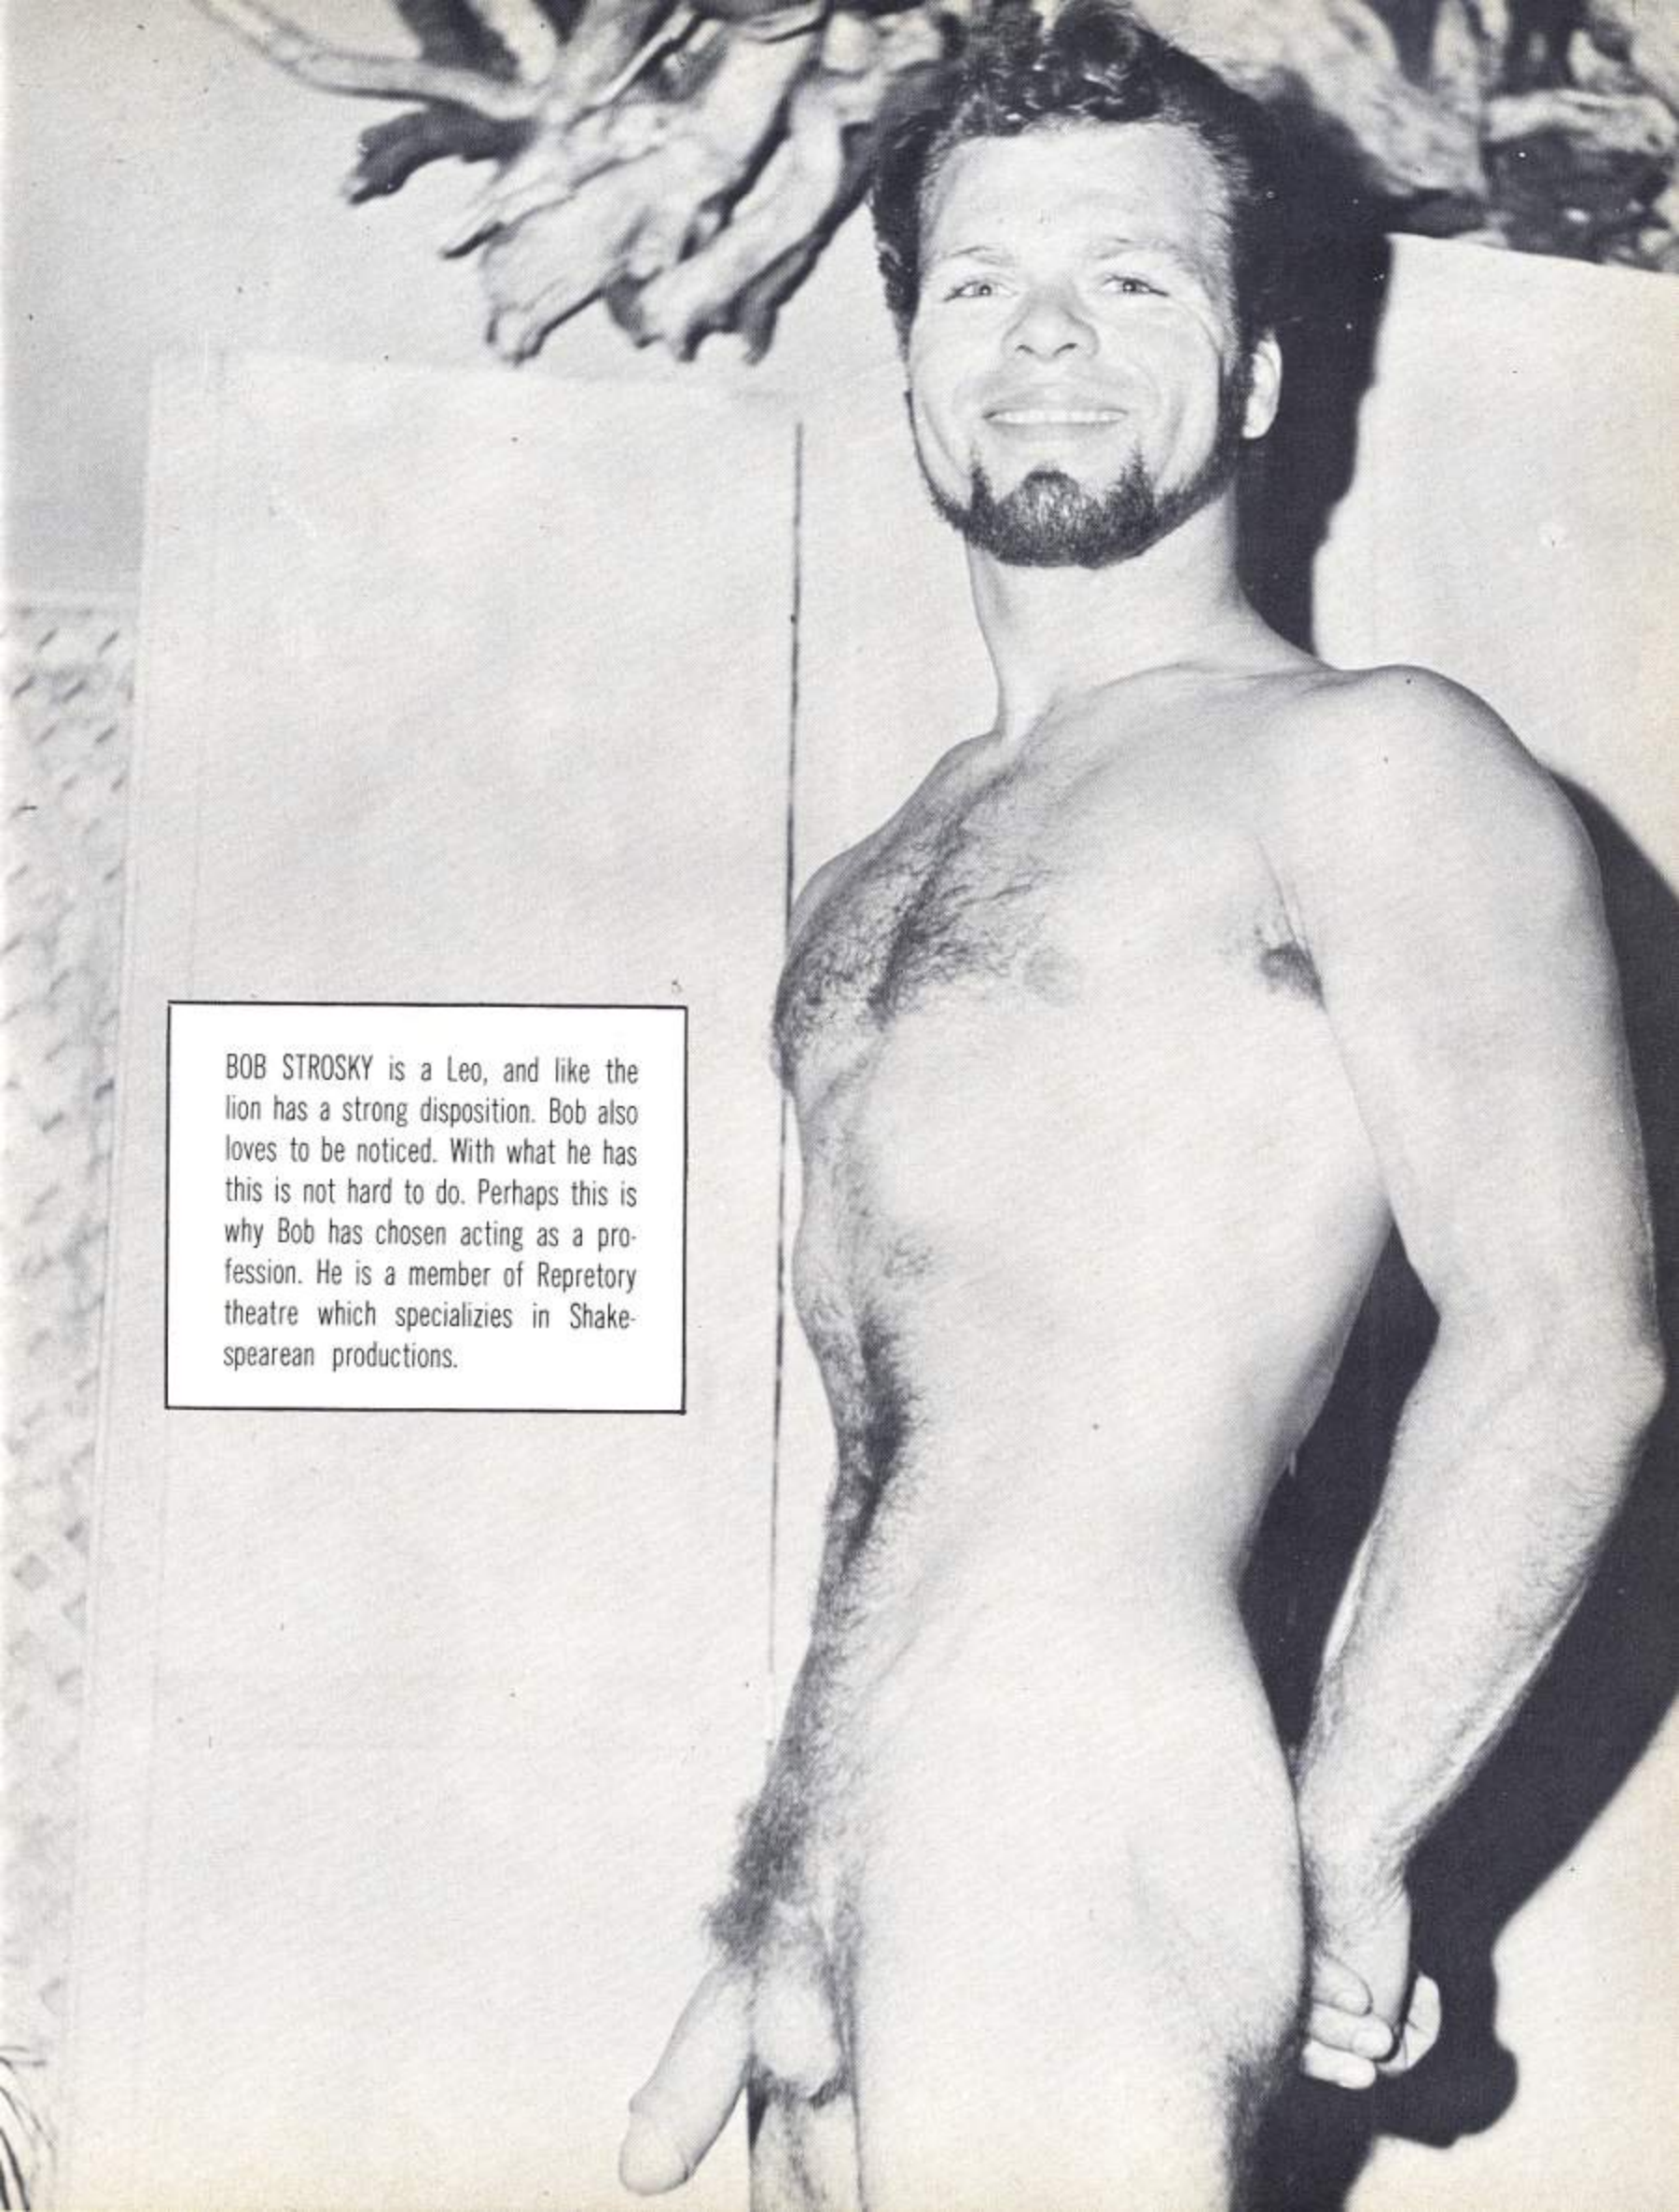

BARRY SCOTT says, "Live and have fun today and to hell with tomorrow. It will take care of itself." Sound like a Gemini? Well, he is, and Barry lives up to it. He is a Jack of all trades and has had many jobs. Right now he is in construction but doesn't know how long it will last. He says that he just may get the urge to take off, and knowing Barry, he will do just that.

BOB STROSKY is a Leo, and like the lion has a strong disposition. Bob also loves to be noticed. With what he has this is not hard to do. Perhaps this is why Bob has chosen acting as a profession. He is a member of Repertory theatre which specializes in Shakespearean productions.

BRIAN JETTER is another Leo. A big powerful man, who has seen plenty of action. Brian tends to be a forceful personality. He was a sergeant in the Army and now has started his own trucking firm. He says it is small now but it will grow.

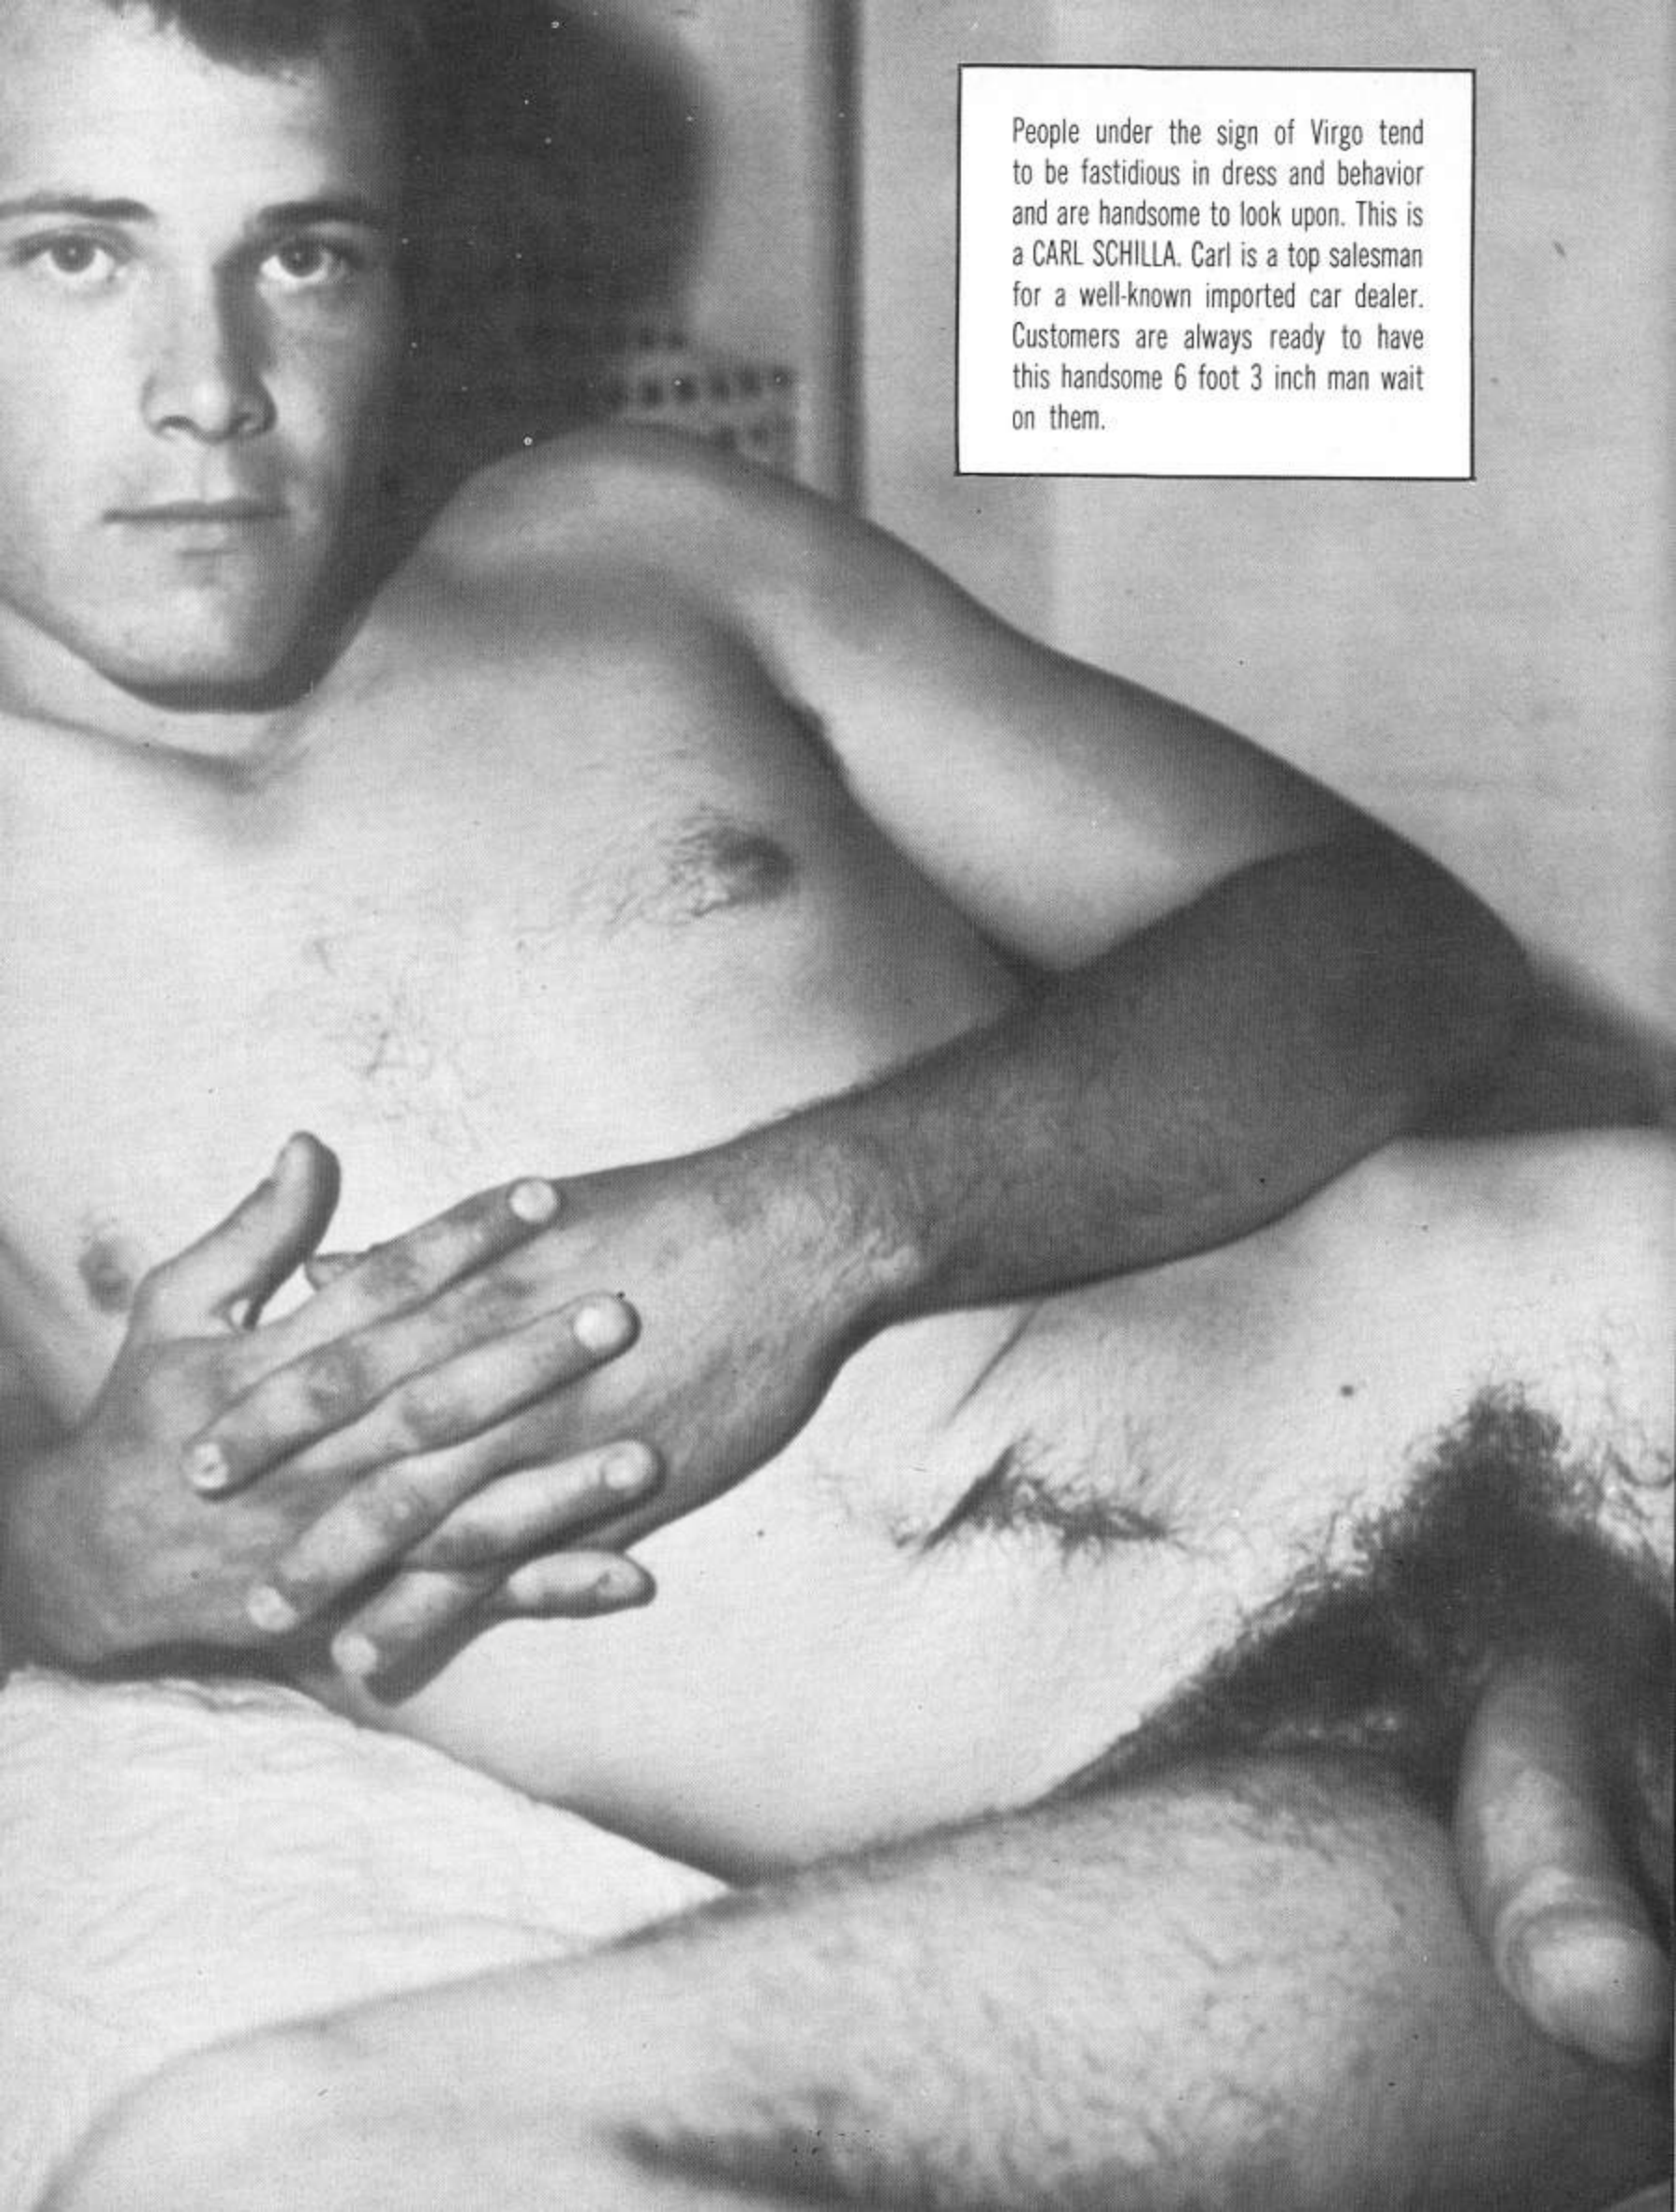

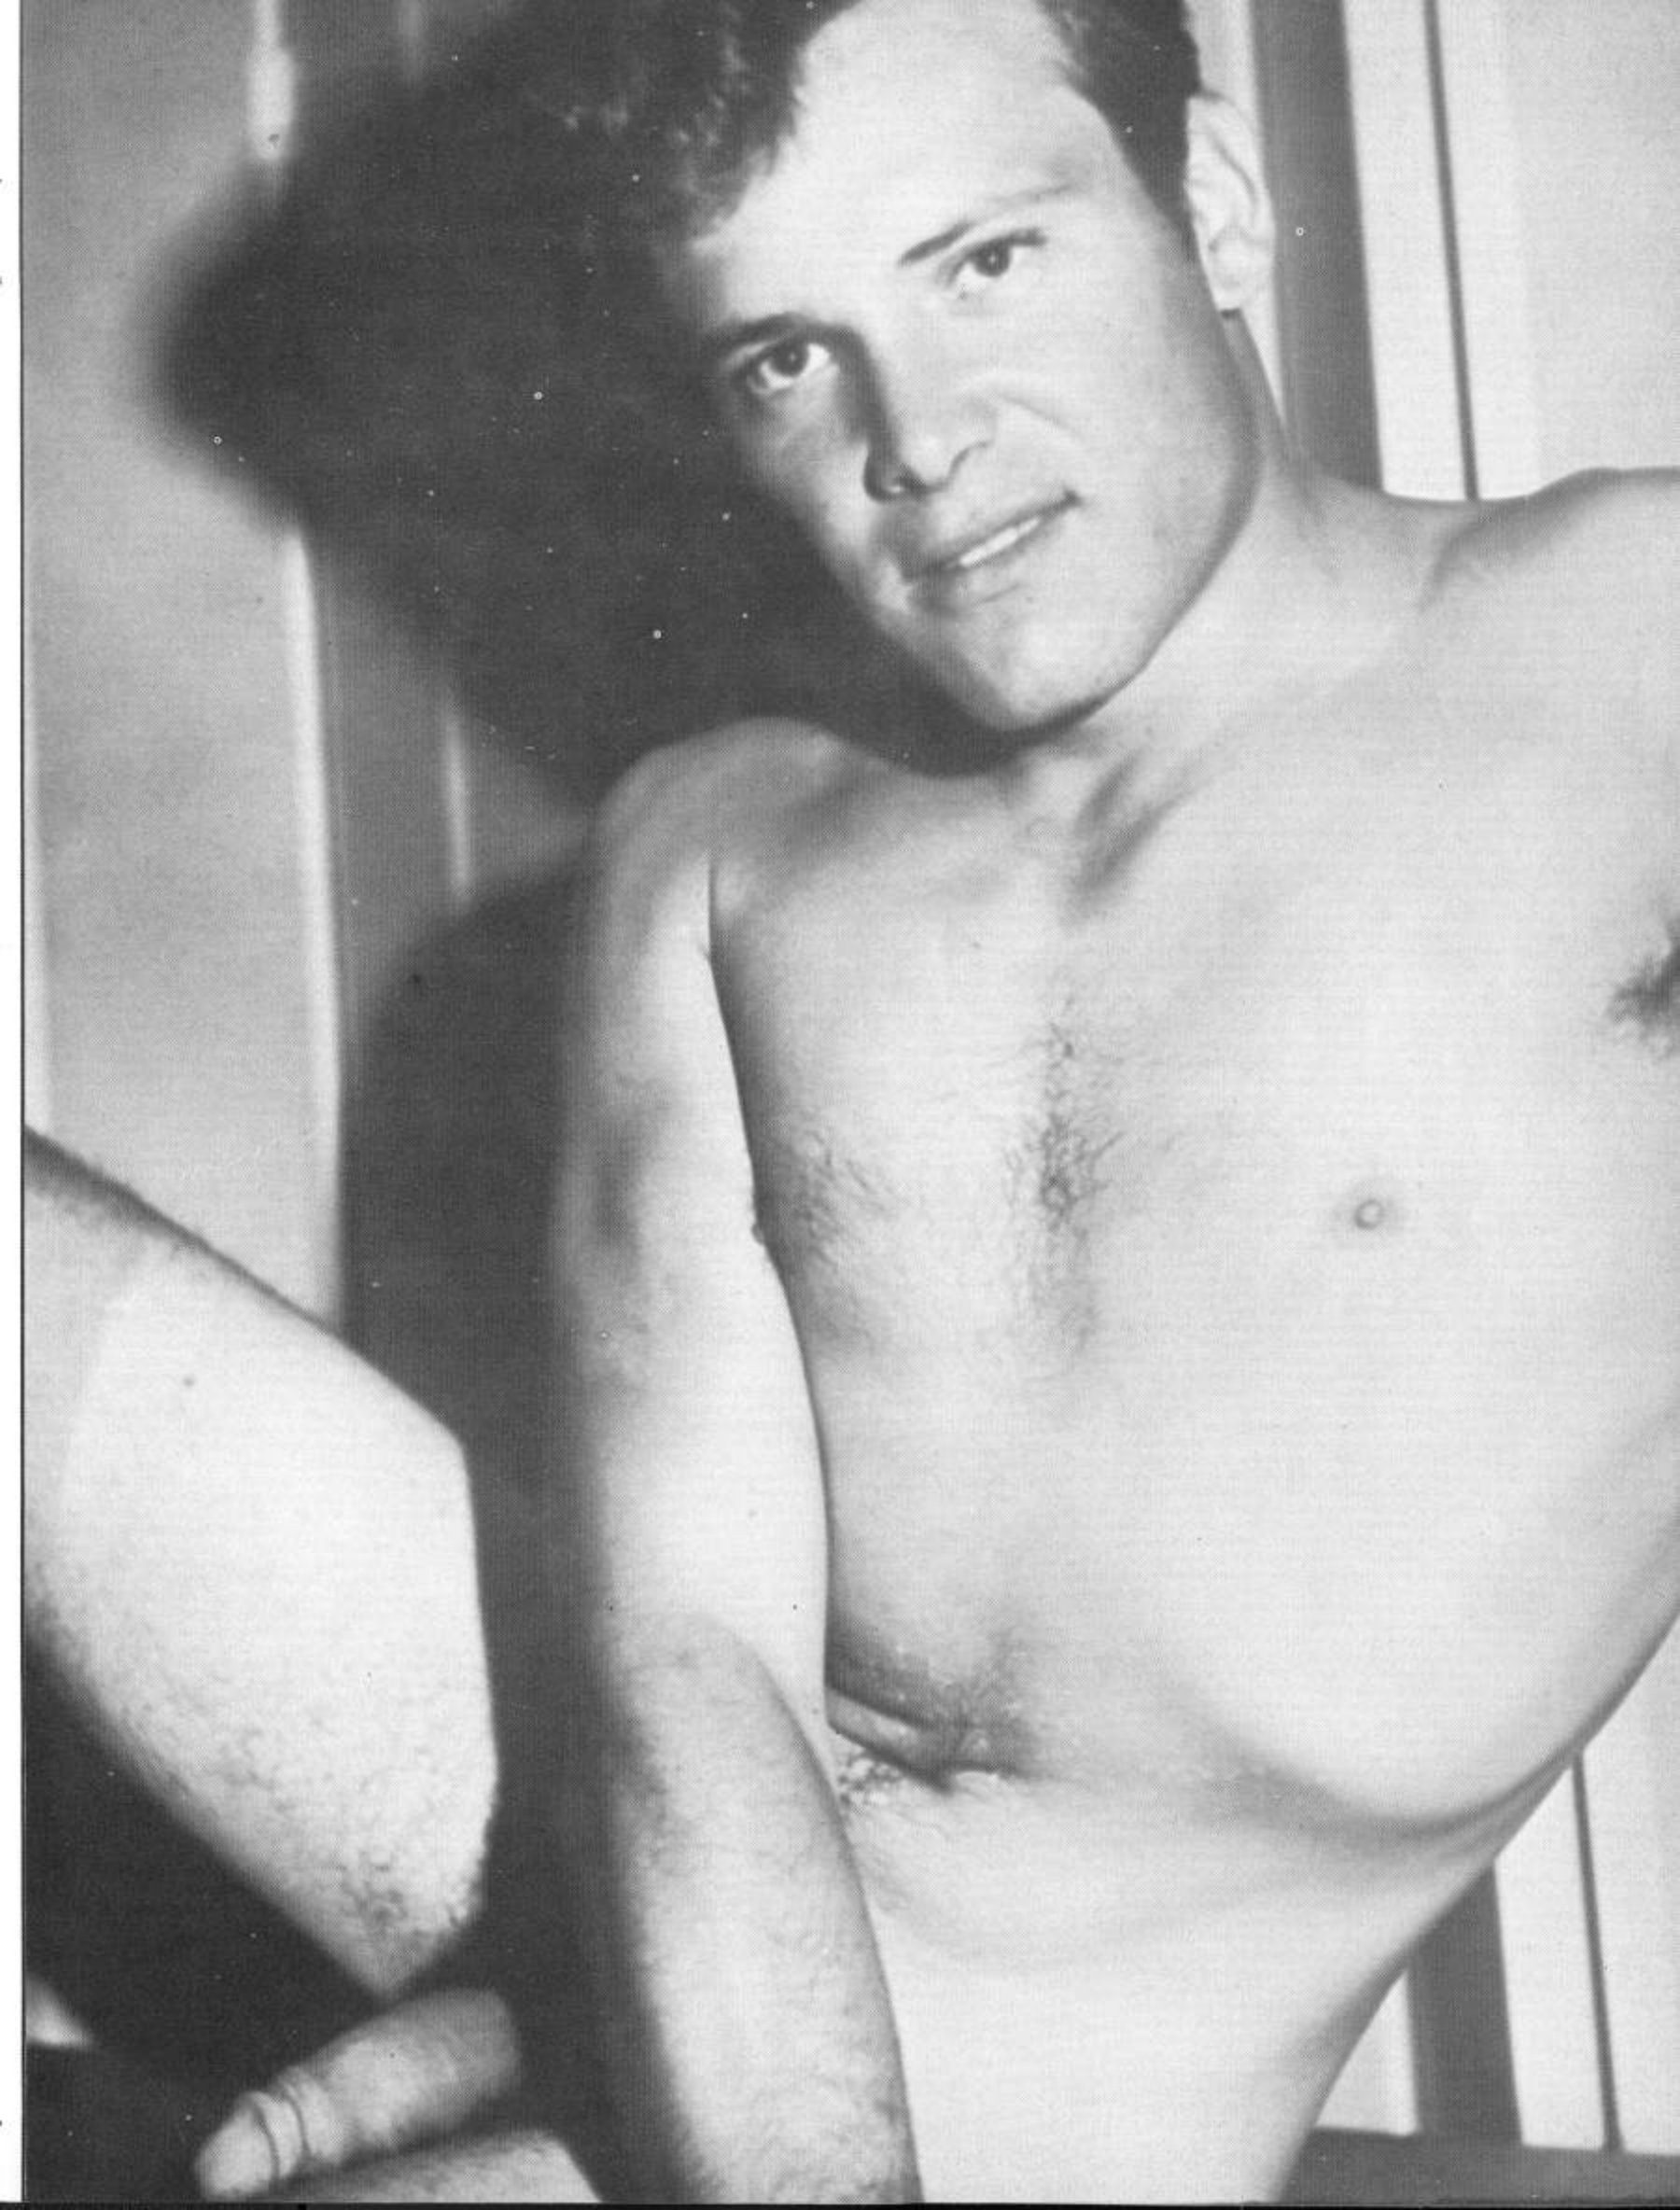

TOMMY SANDERS is a Capricorn; steady and dependable. His interests lie in electronics, and he makes use of it by working as a television repairman. Tommy has recently built himself a ham radio. He says that he enjoys sharing his interest and experiences with guys in other countries.

People under the sign of Virgo tend to be fastidious in dress and behavior and are handsome to look upon. This is a CARL SCHILLA. Carl is a top salesman for a well-known imported car dealer. Customers are always ready to have this handsome 6 foot 3 inch man wait on them.

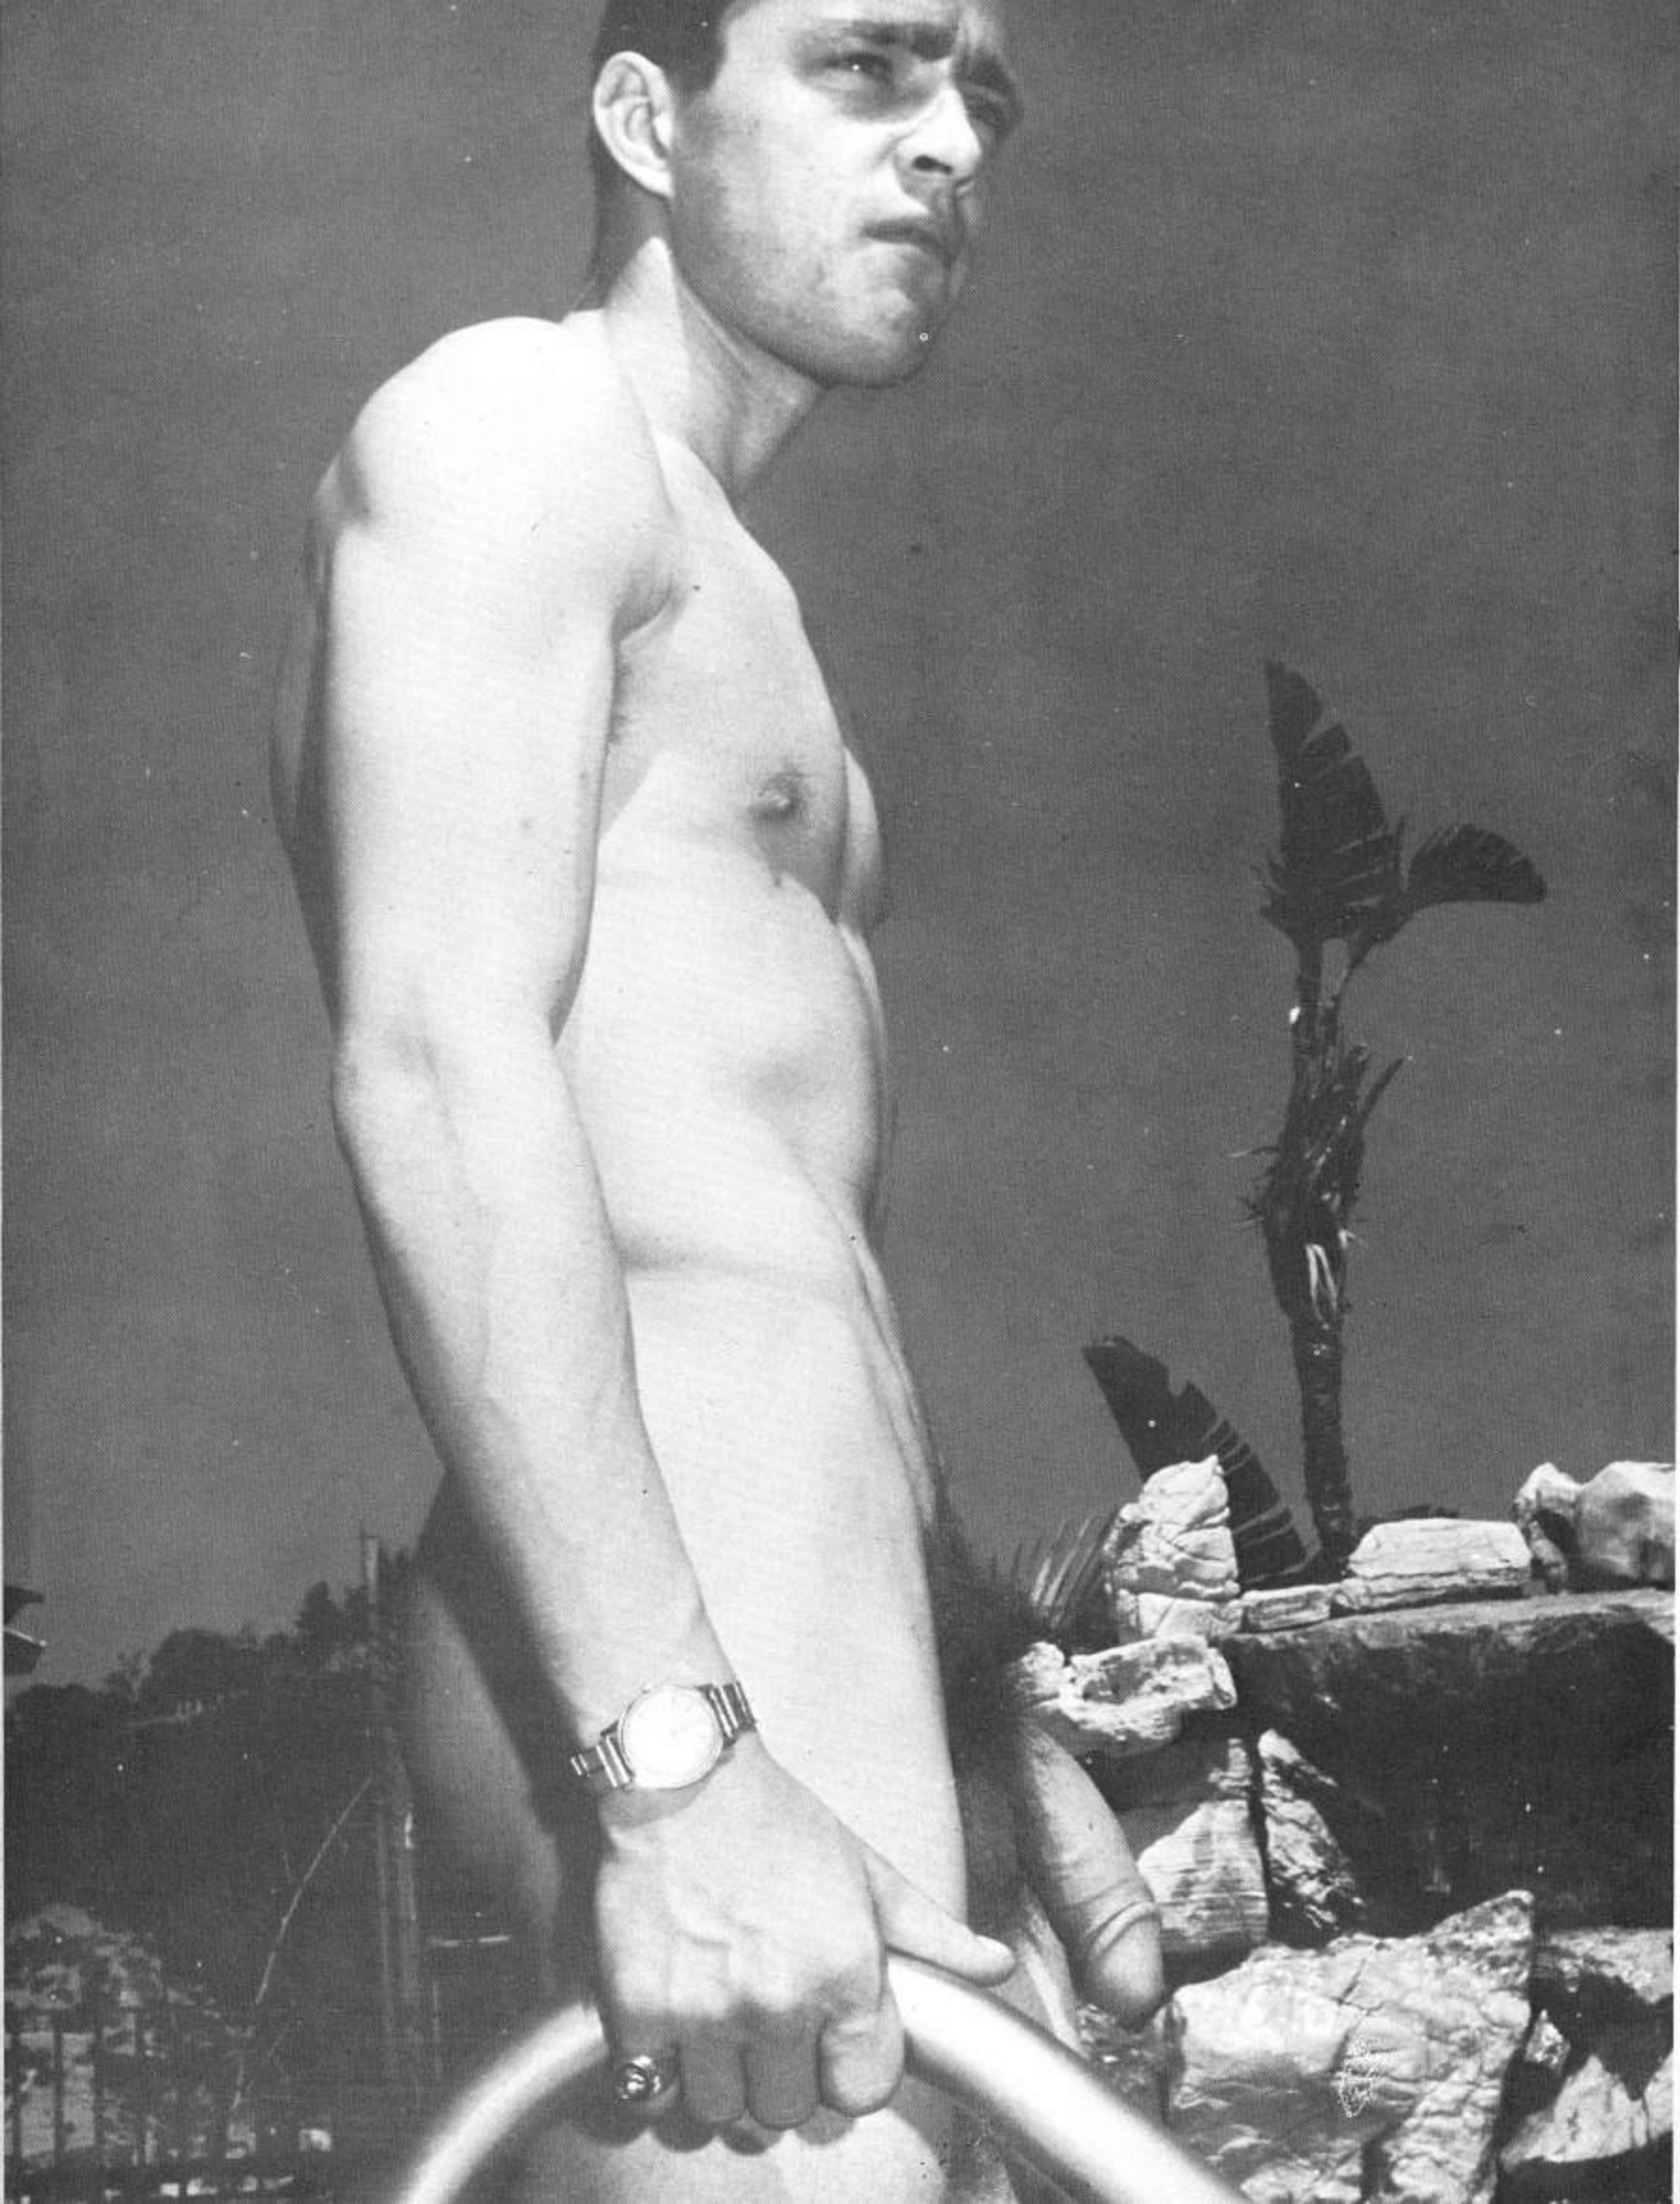

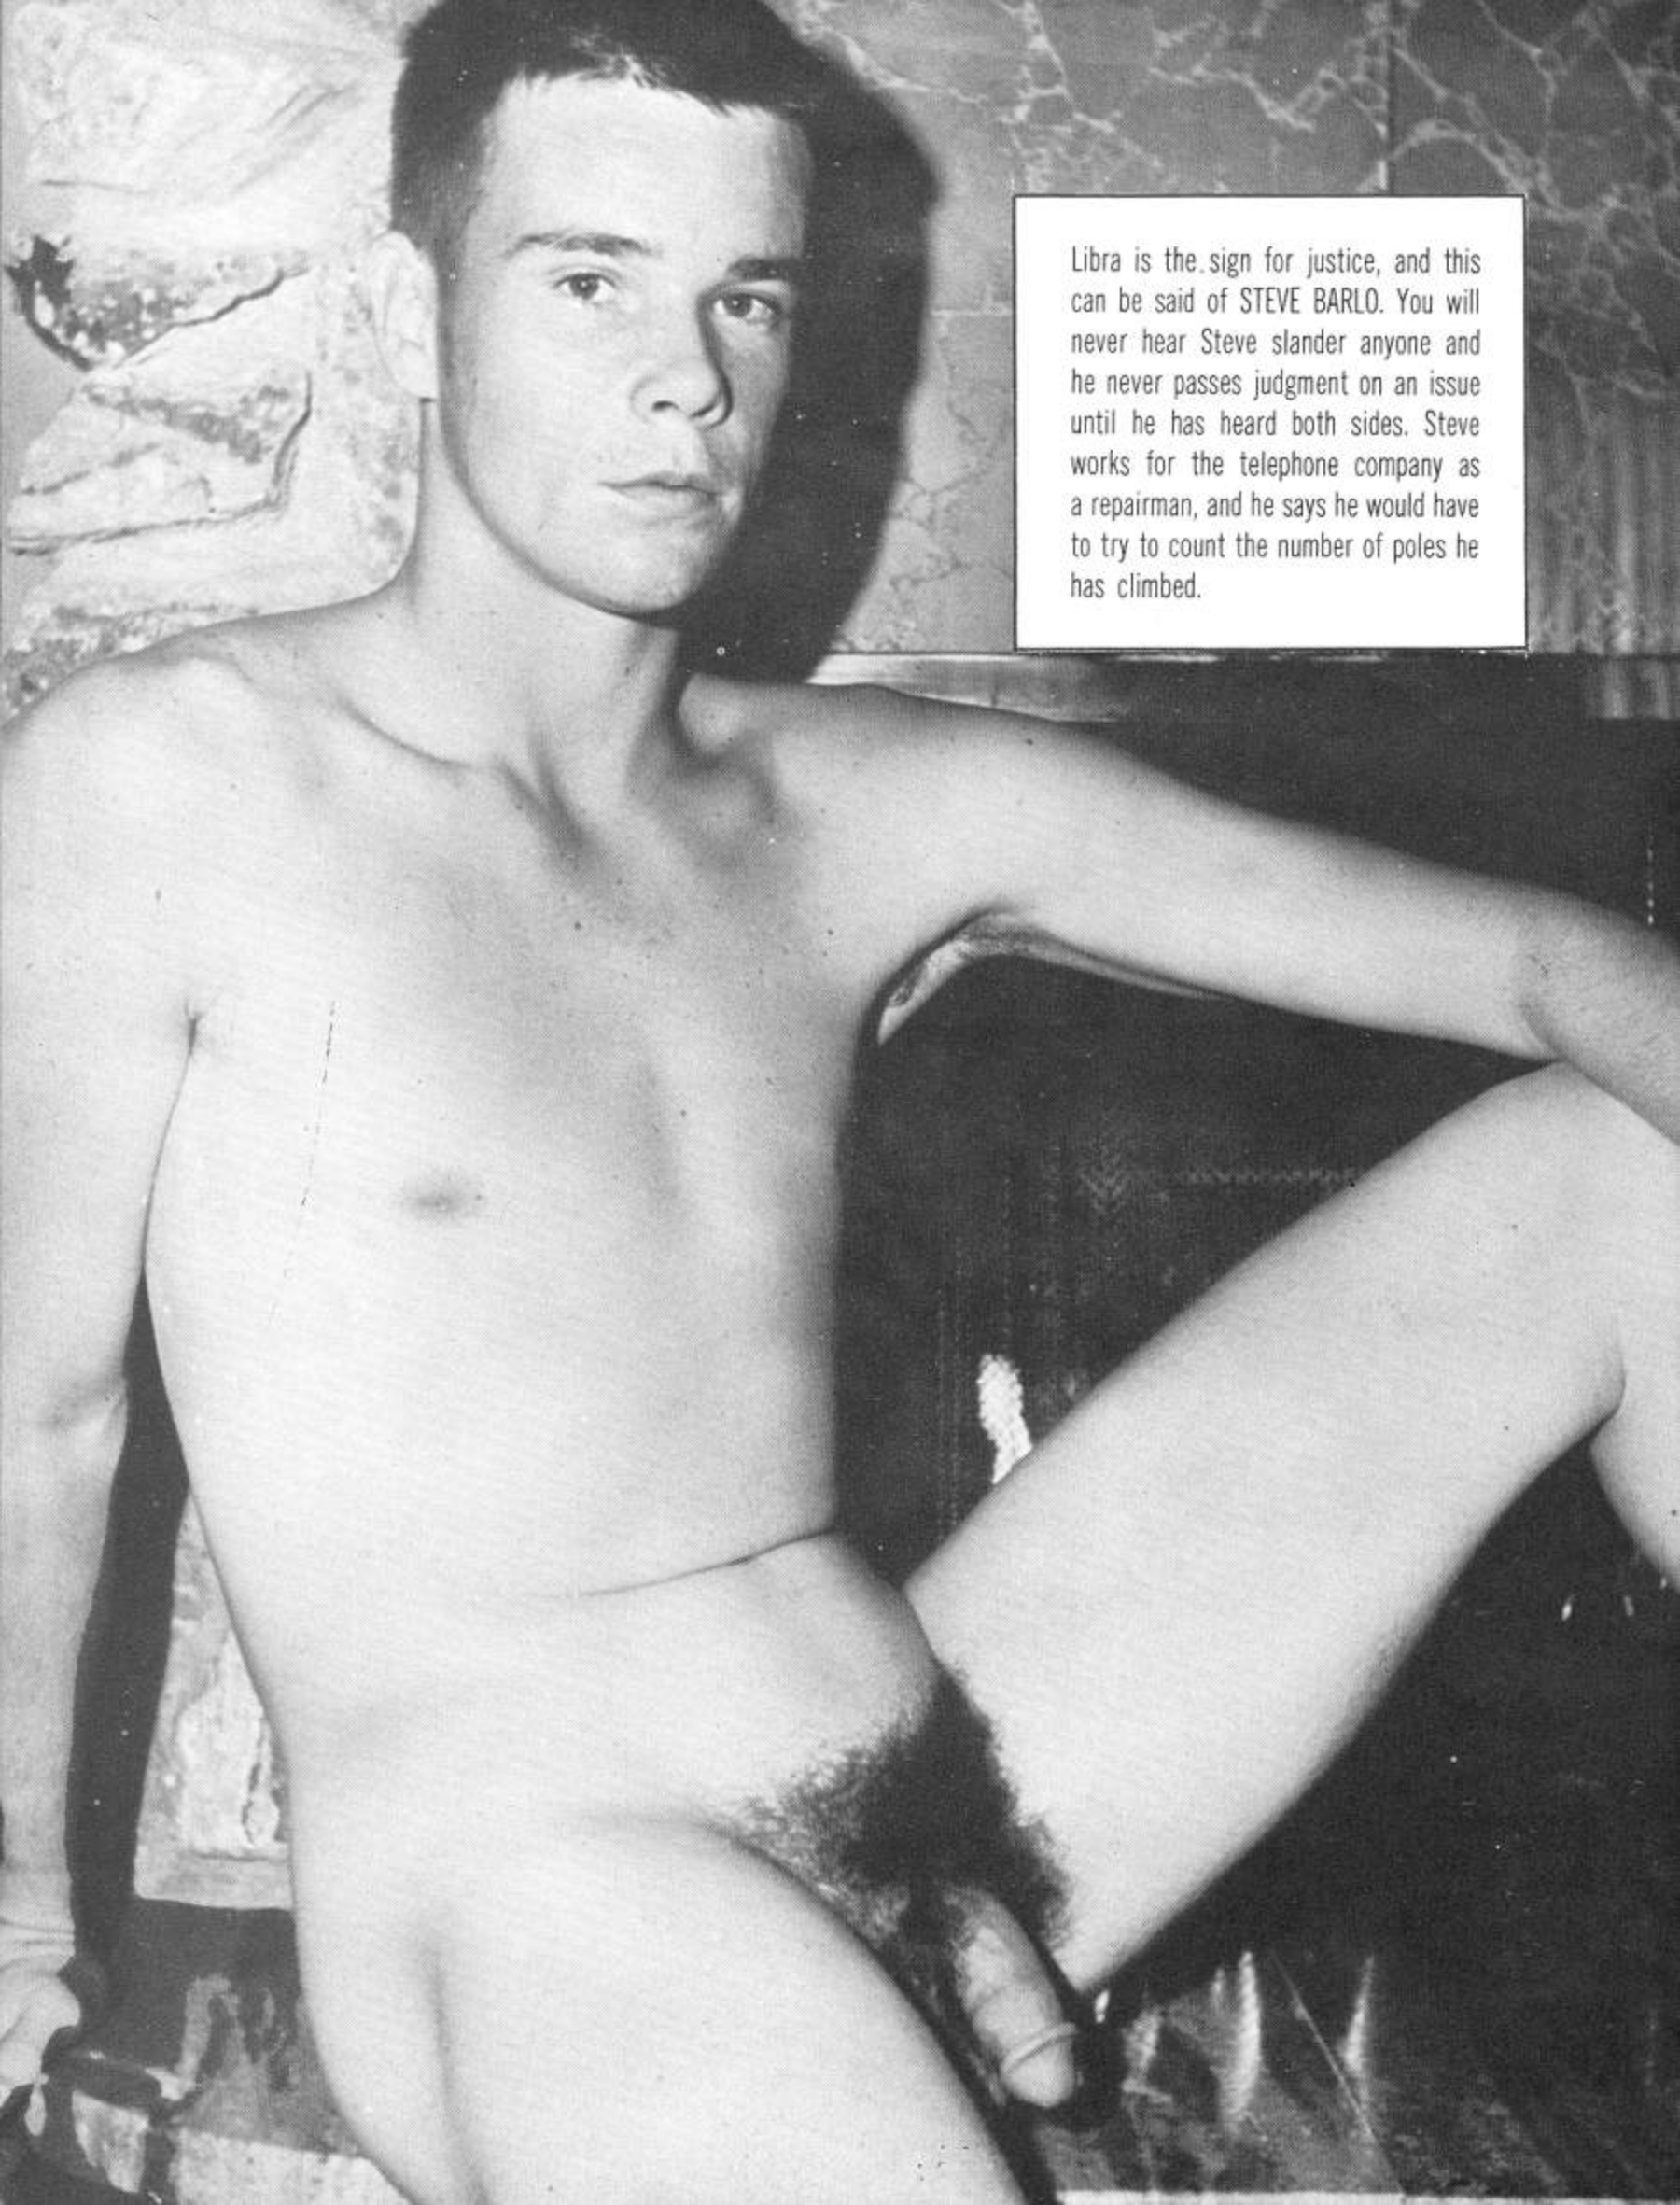

Libra is the sign for justice, and this can be said of STEVE BARLO. You will never hear Steve slander anyone and he never passes judgment on an issue until he has heard both sides. Steve works for the telephone company as a repairman, and he says he would have to try to count the number of poles he has climbed.

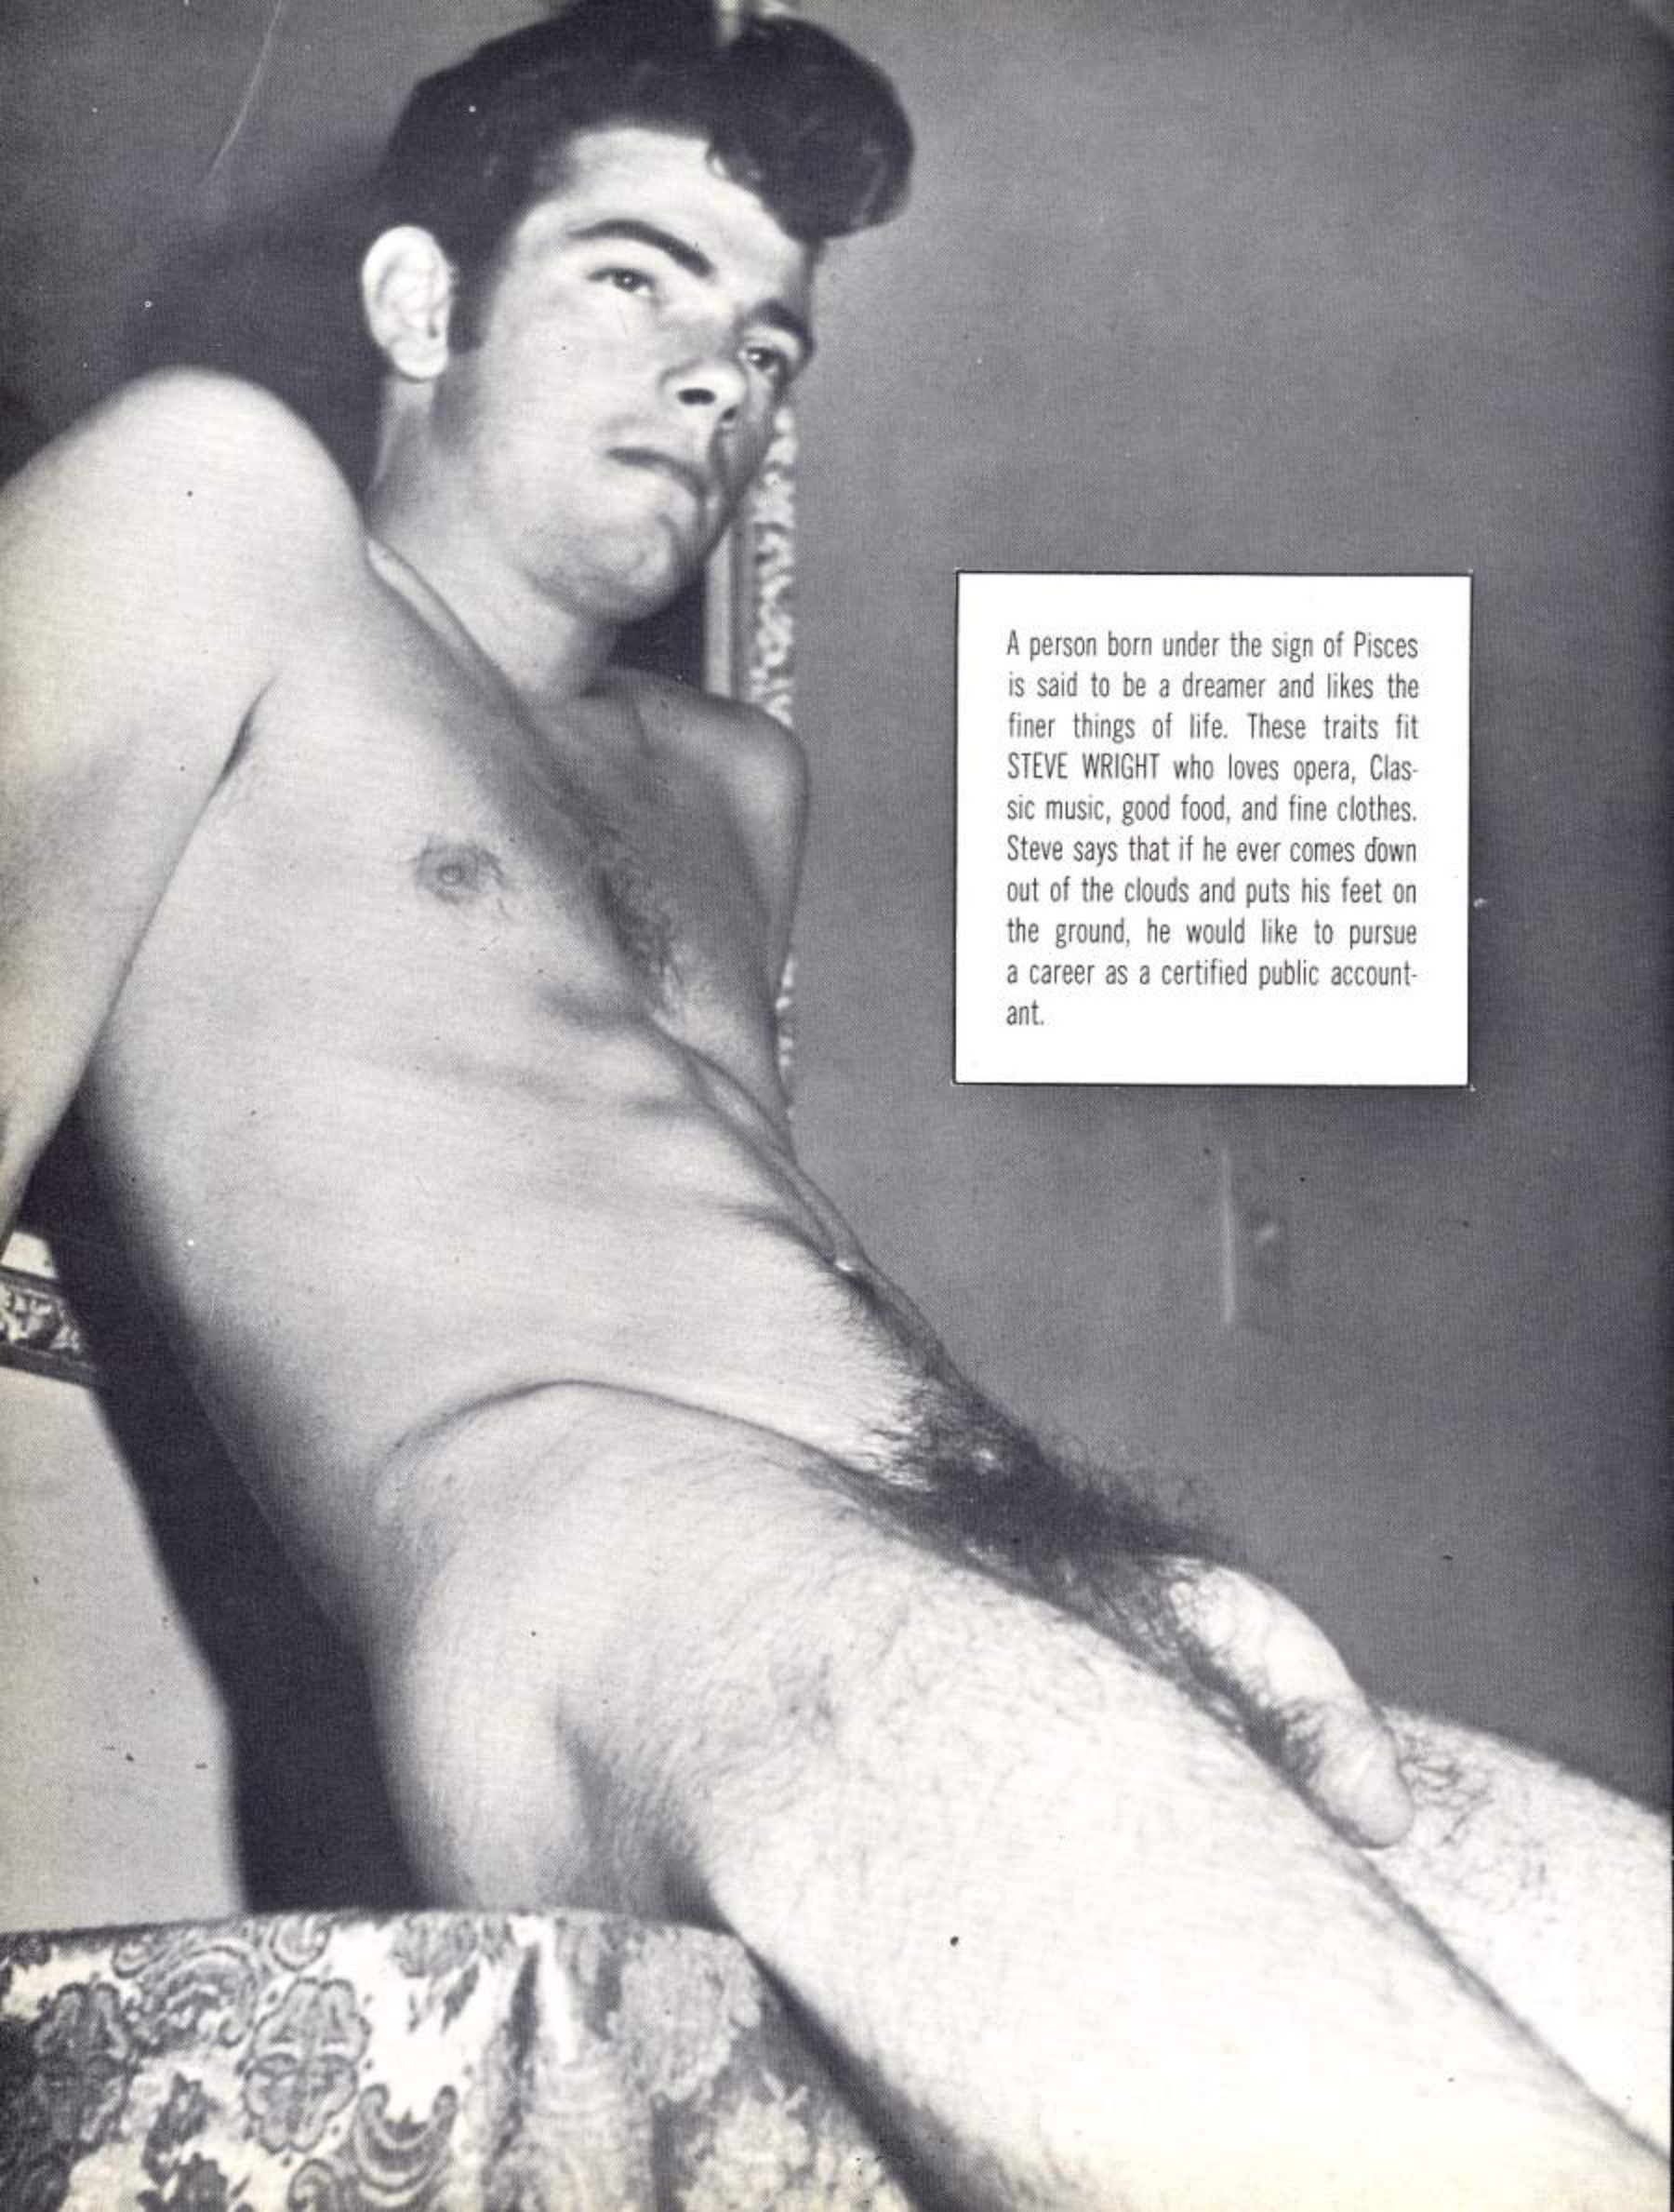

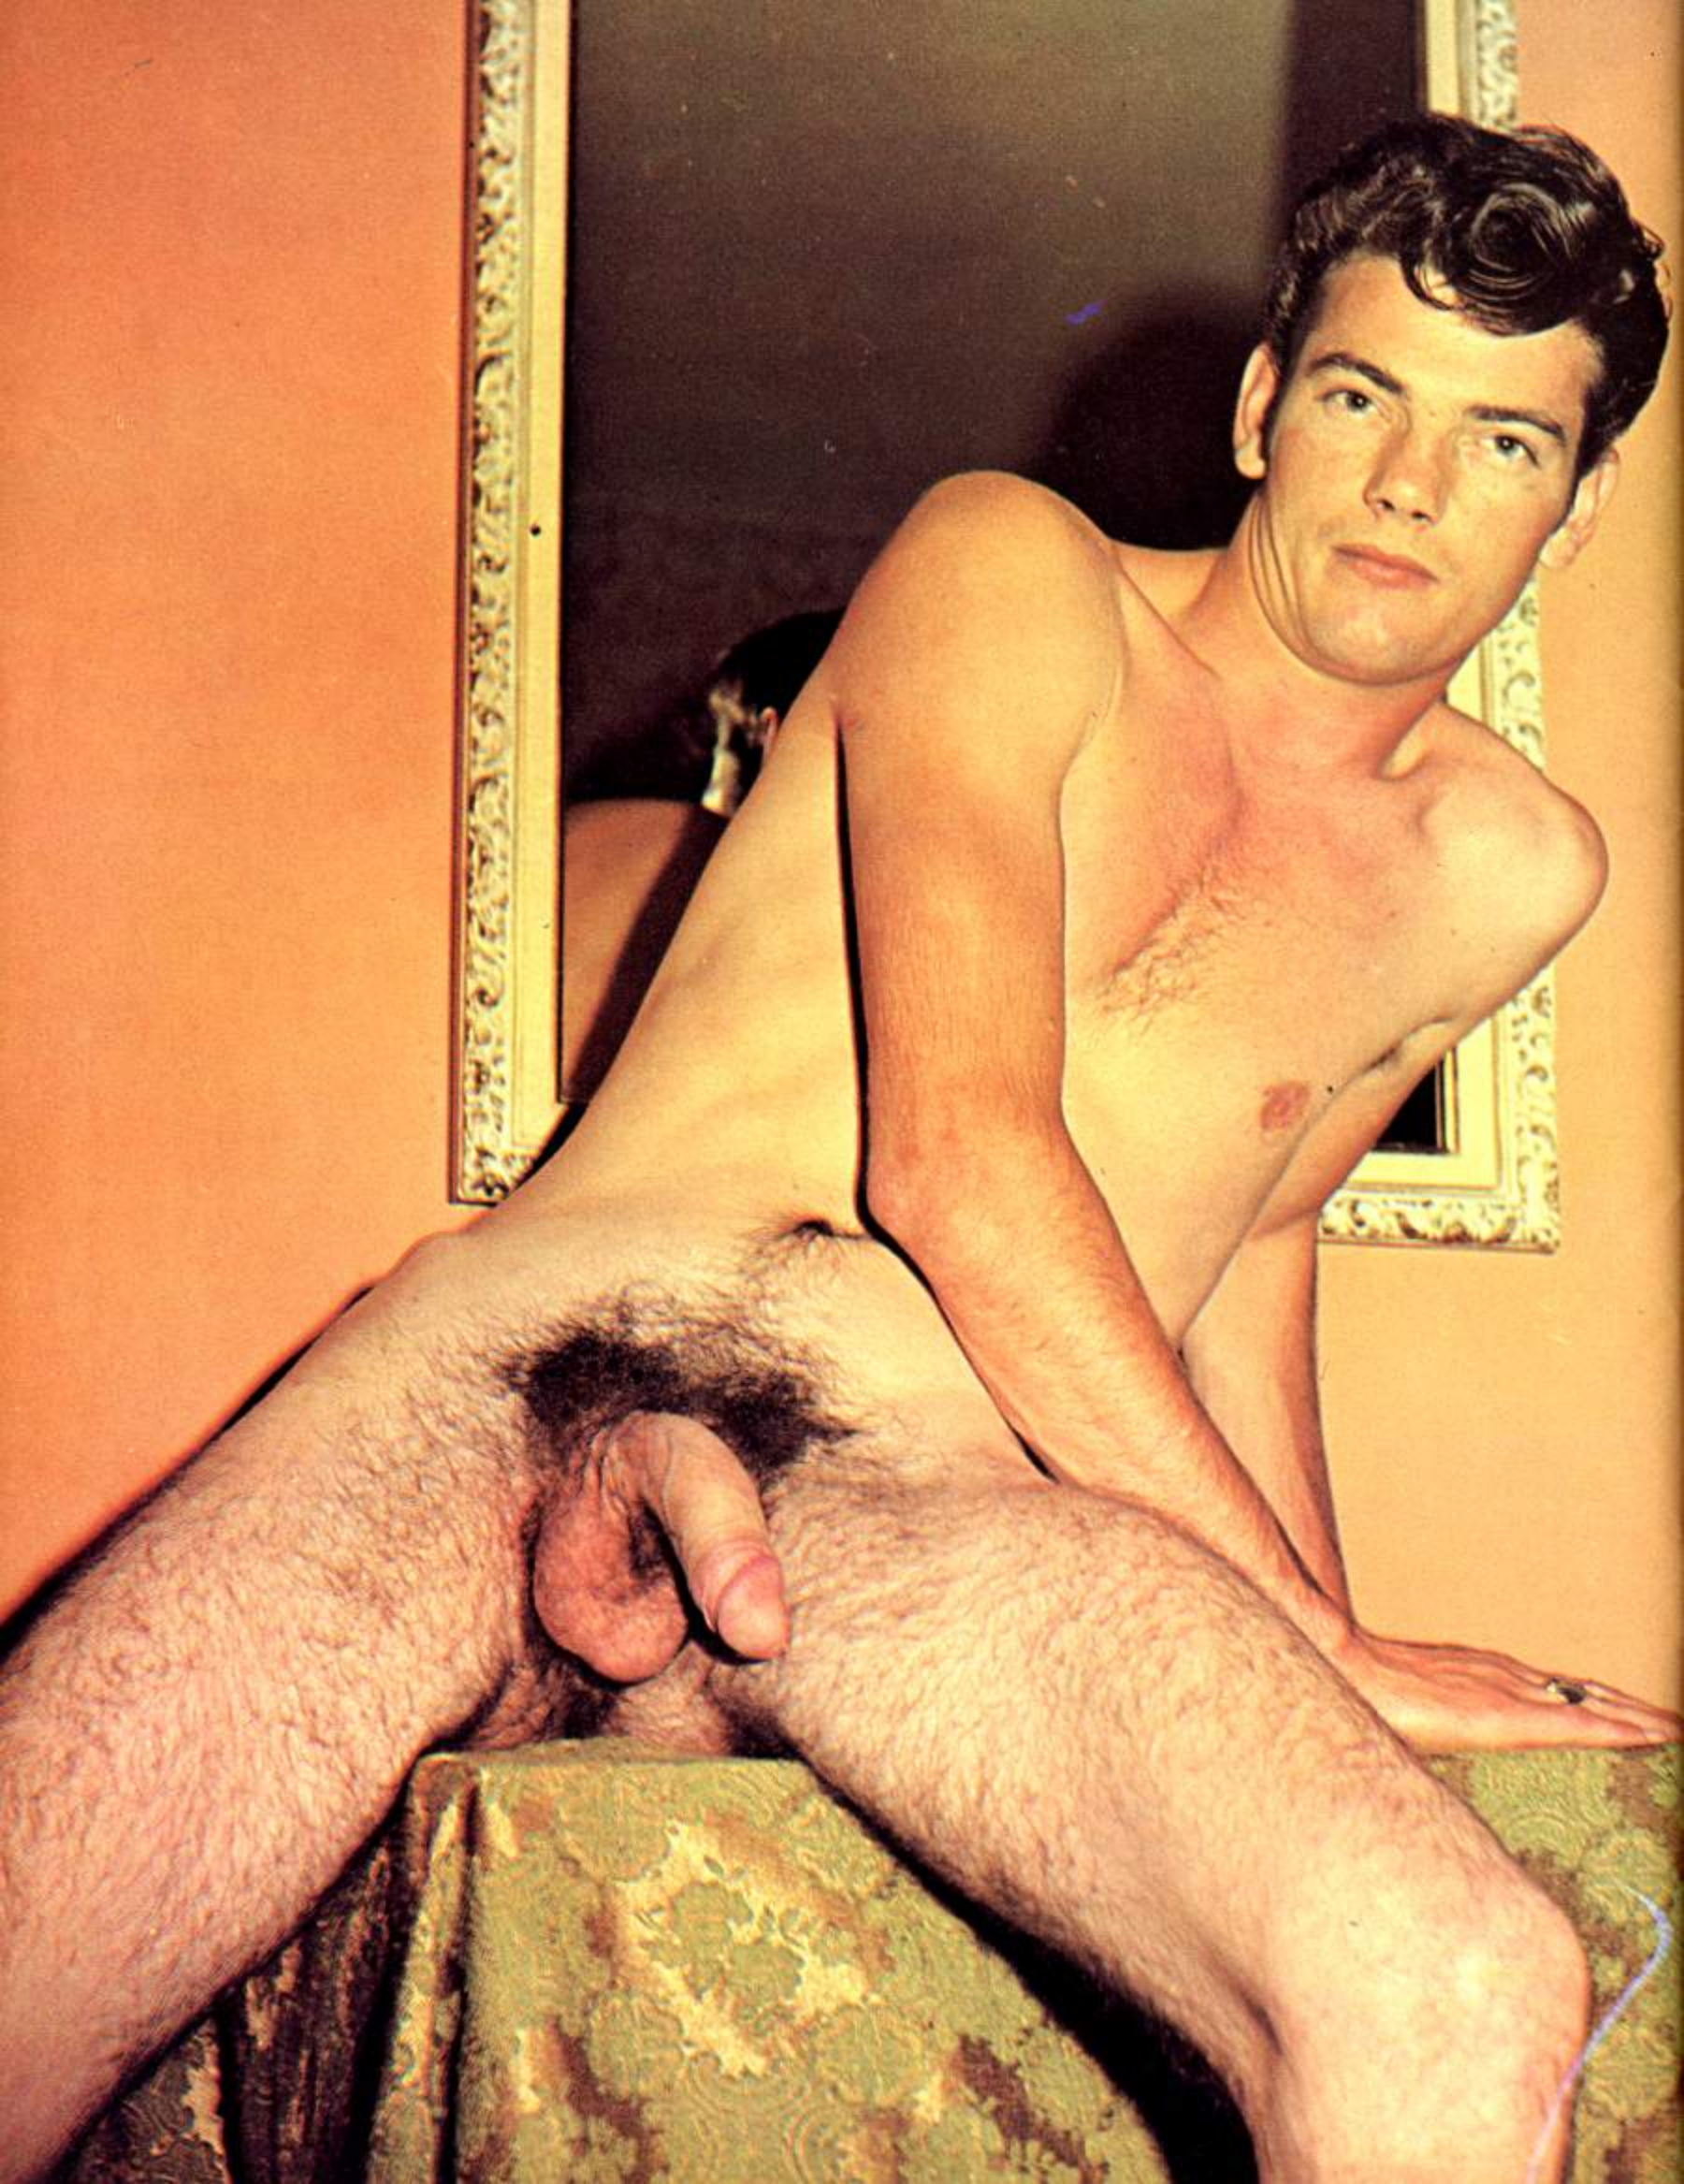

A person born under the sign of Pisces is said to be a dreamer and likes the finer things of life. These traits fit STEVE WRIGHT who loves opera, Classic music, good food, and fine clothes. Steve says that if he ever comes down out of the clouds and puts his feet on the ground, he would like to pursue a career as a certified public accountant.

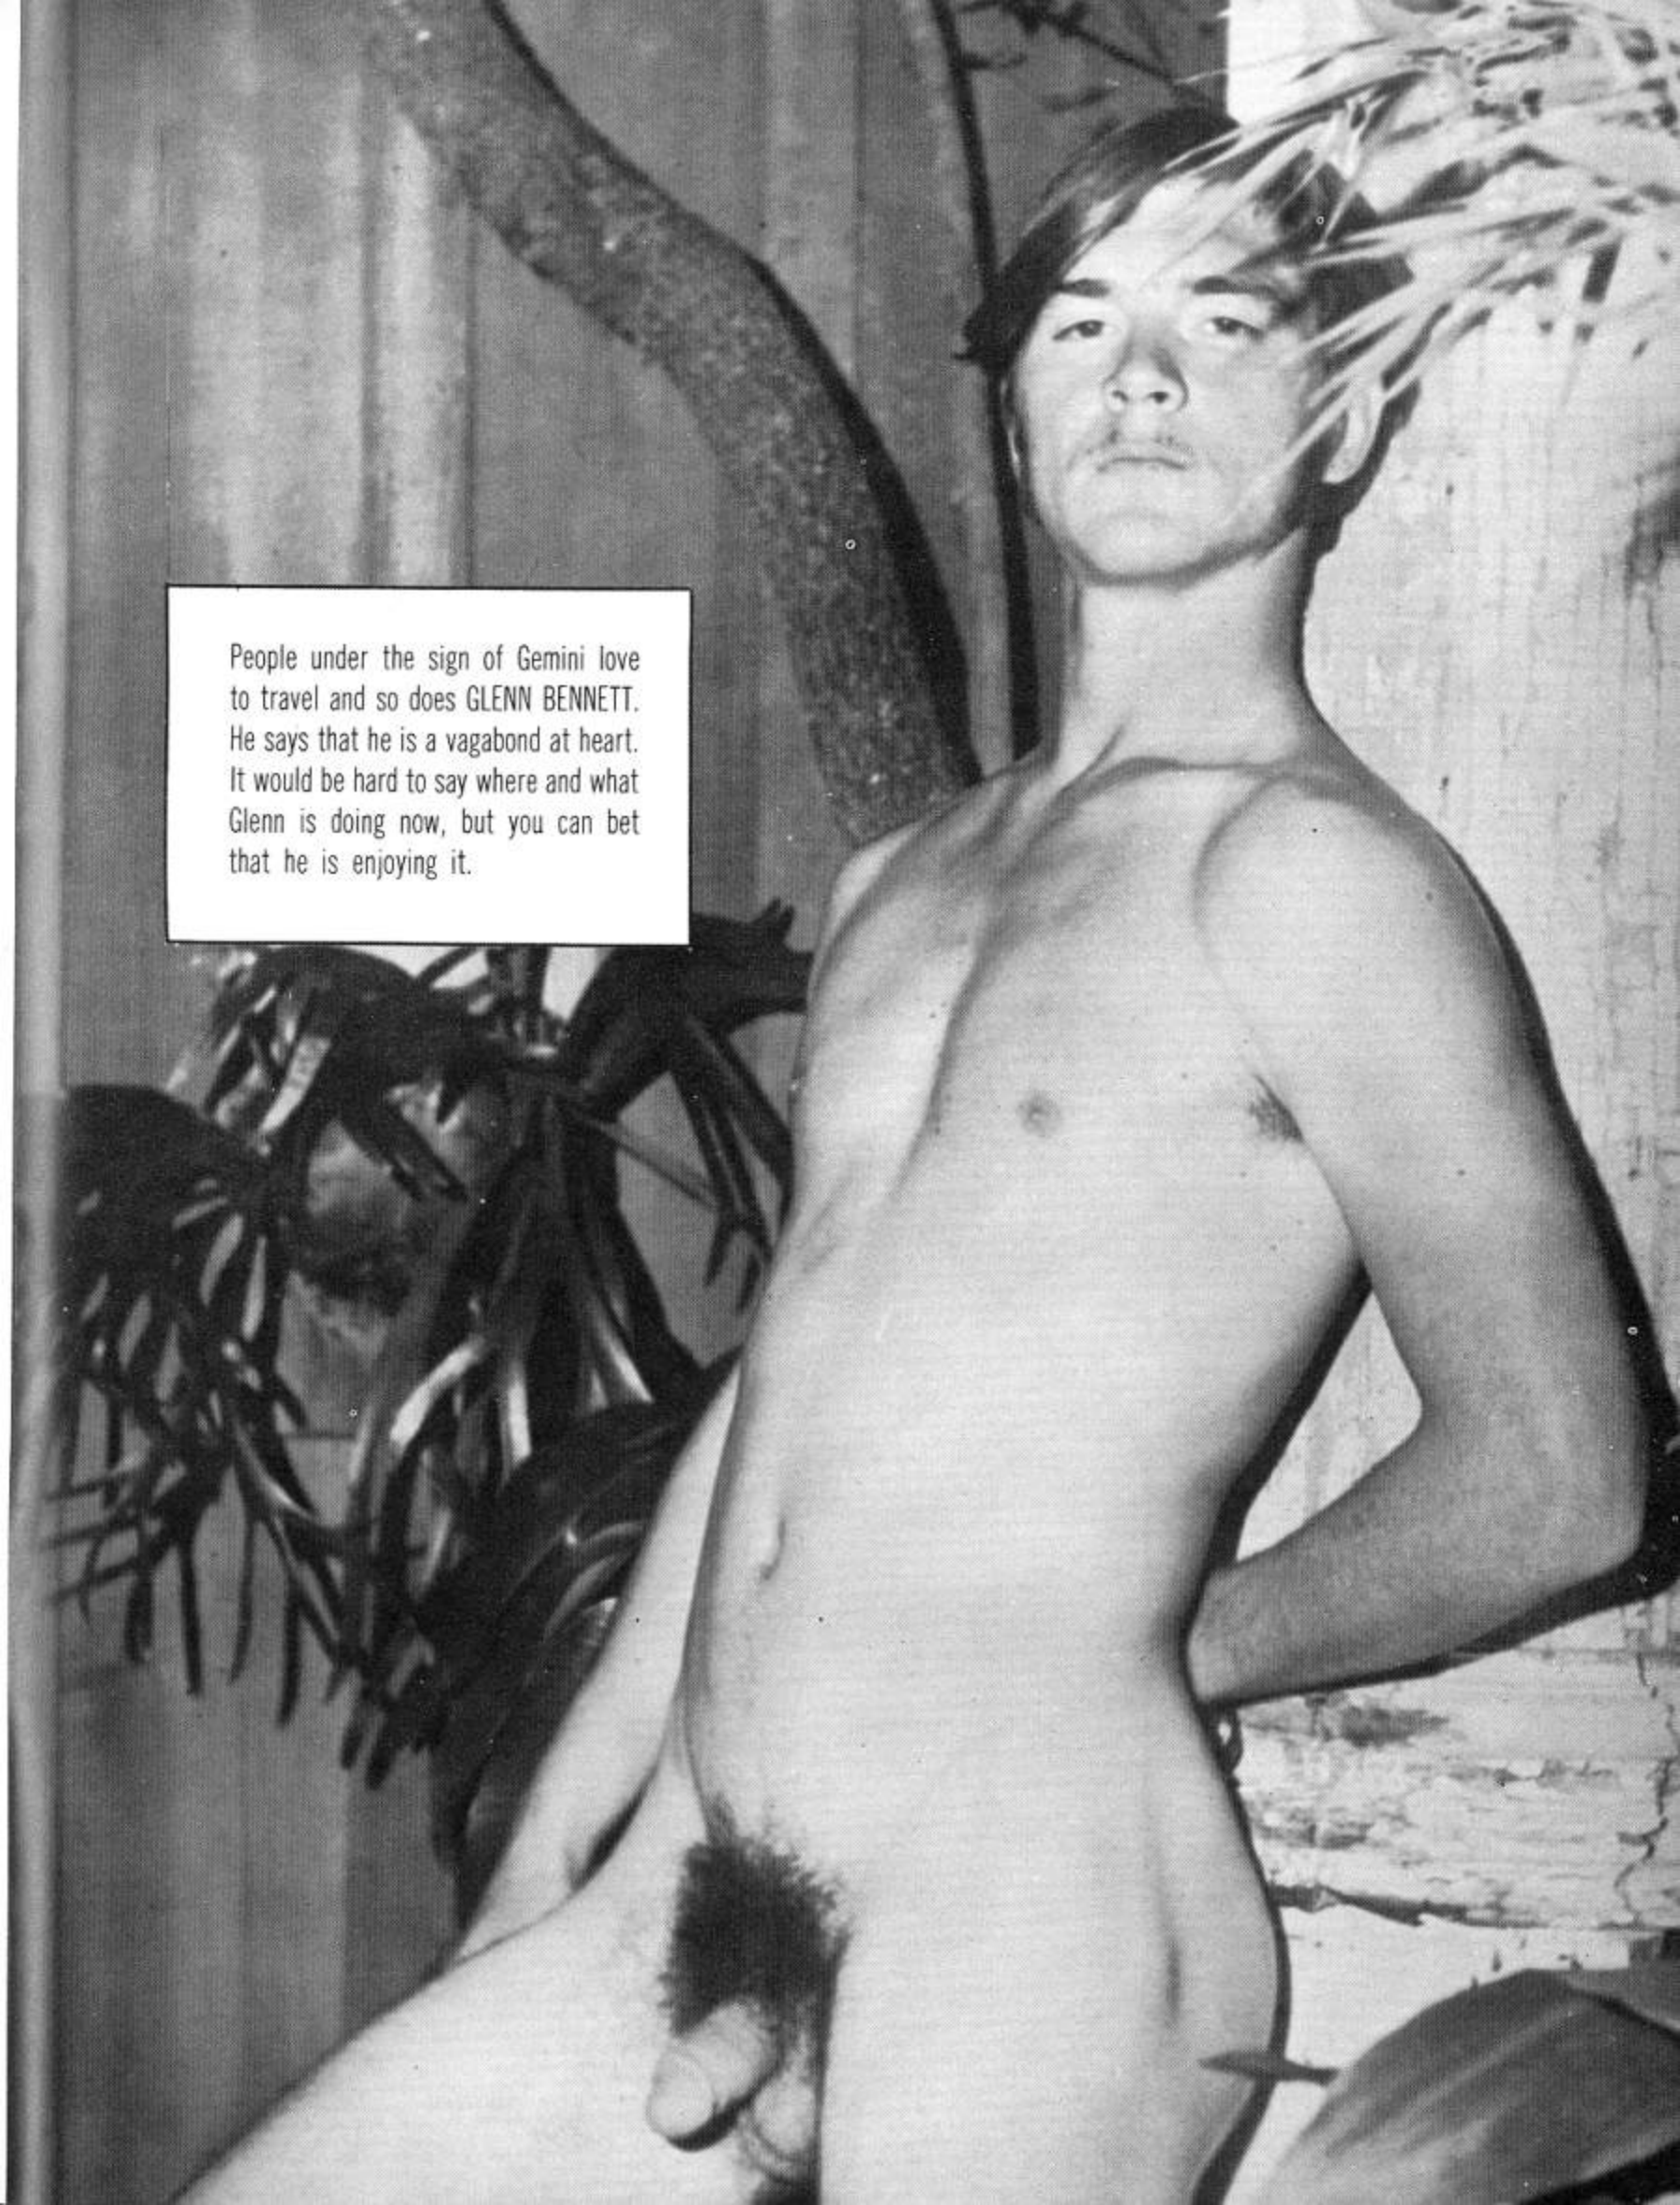

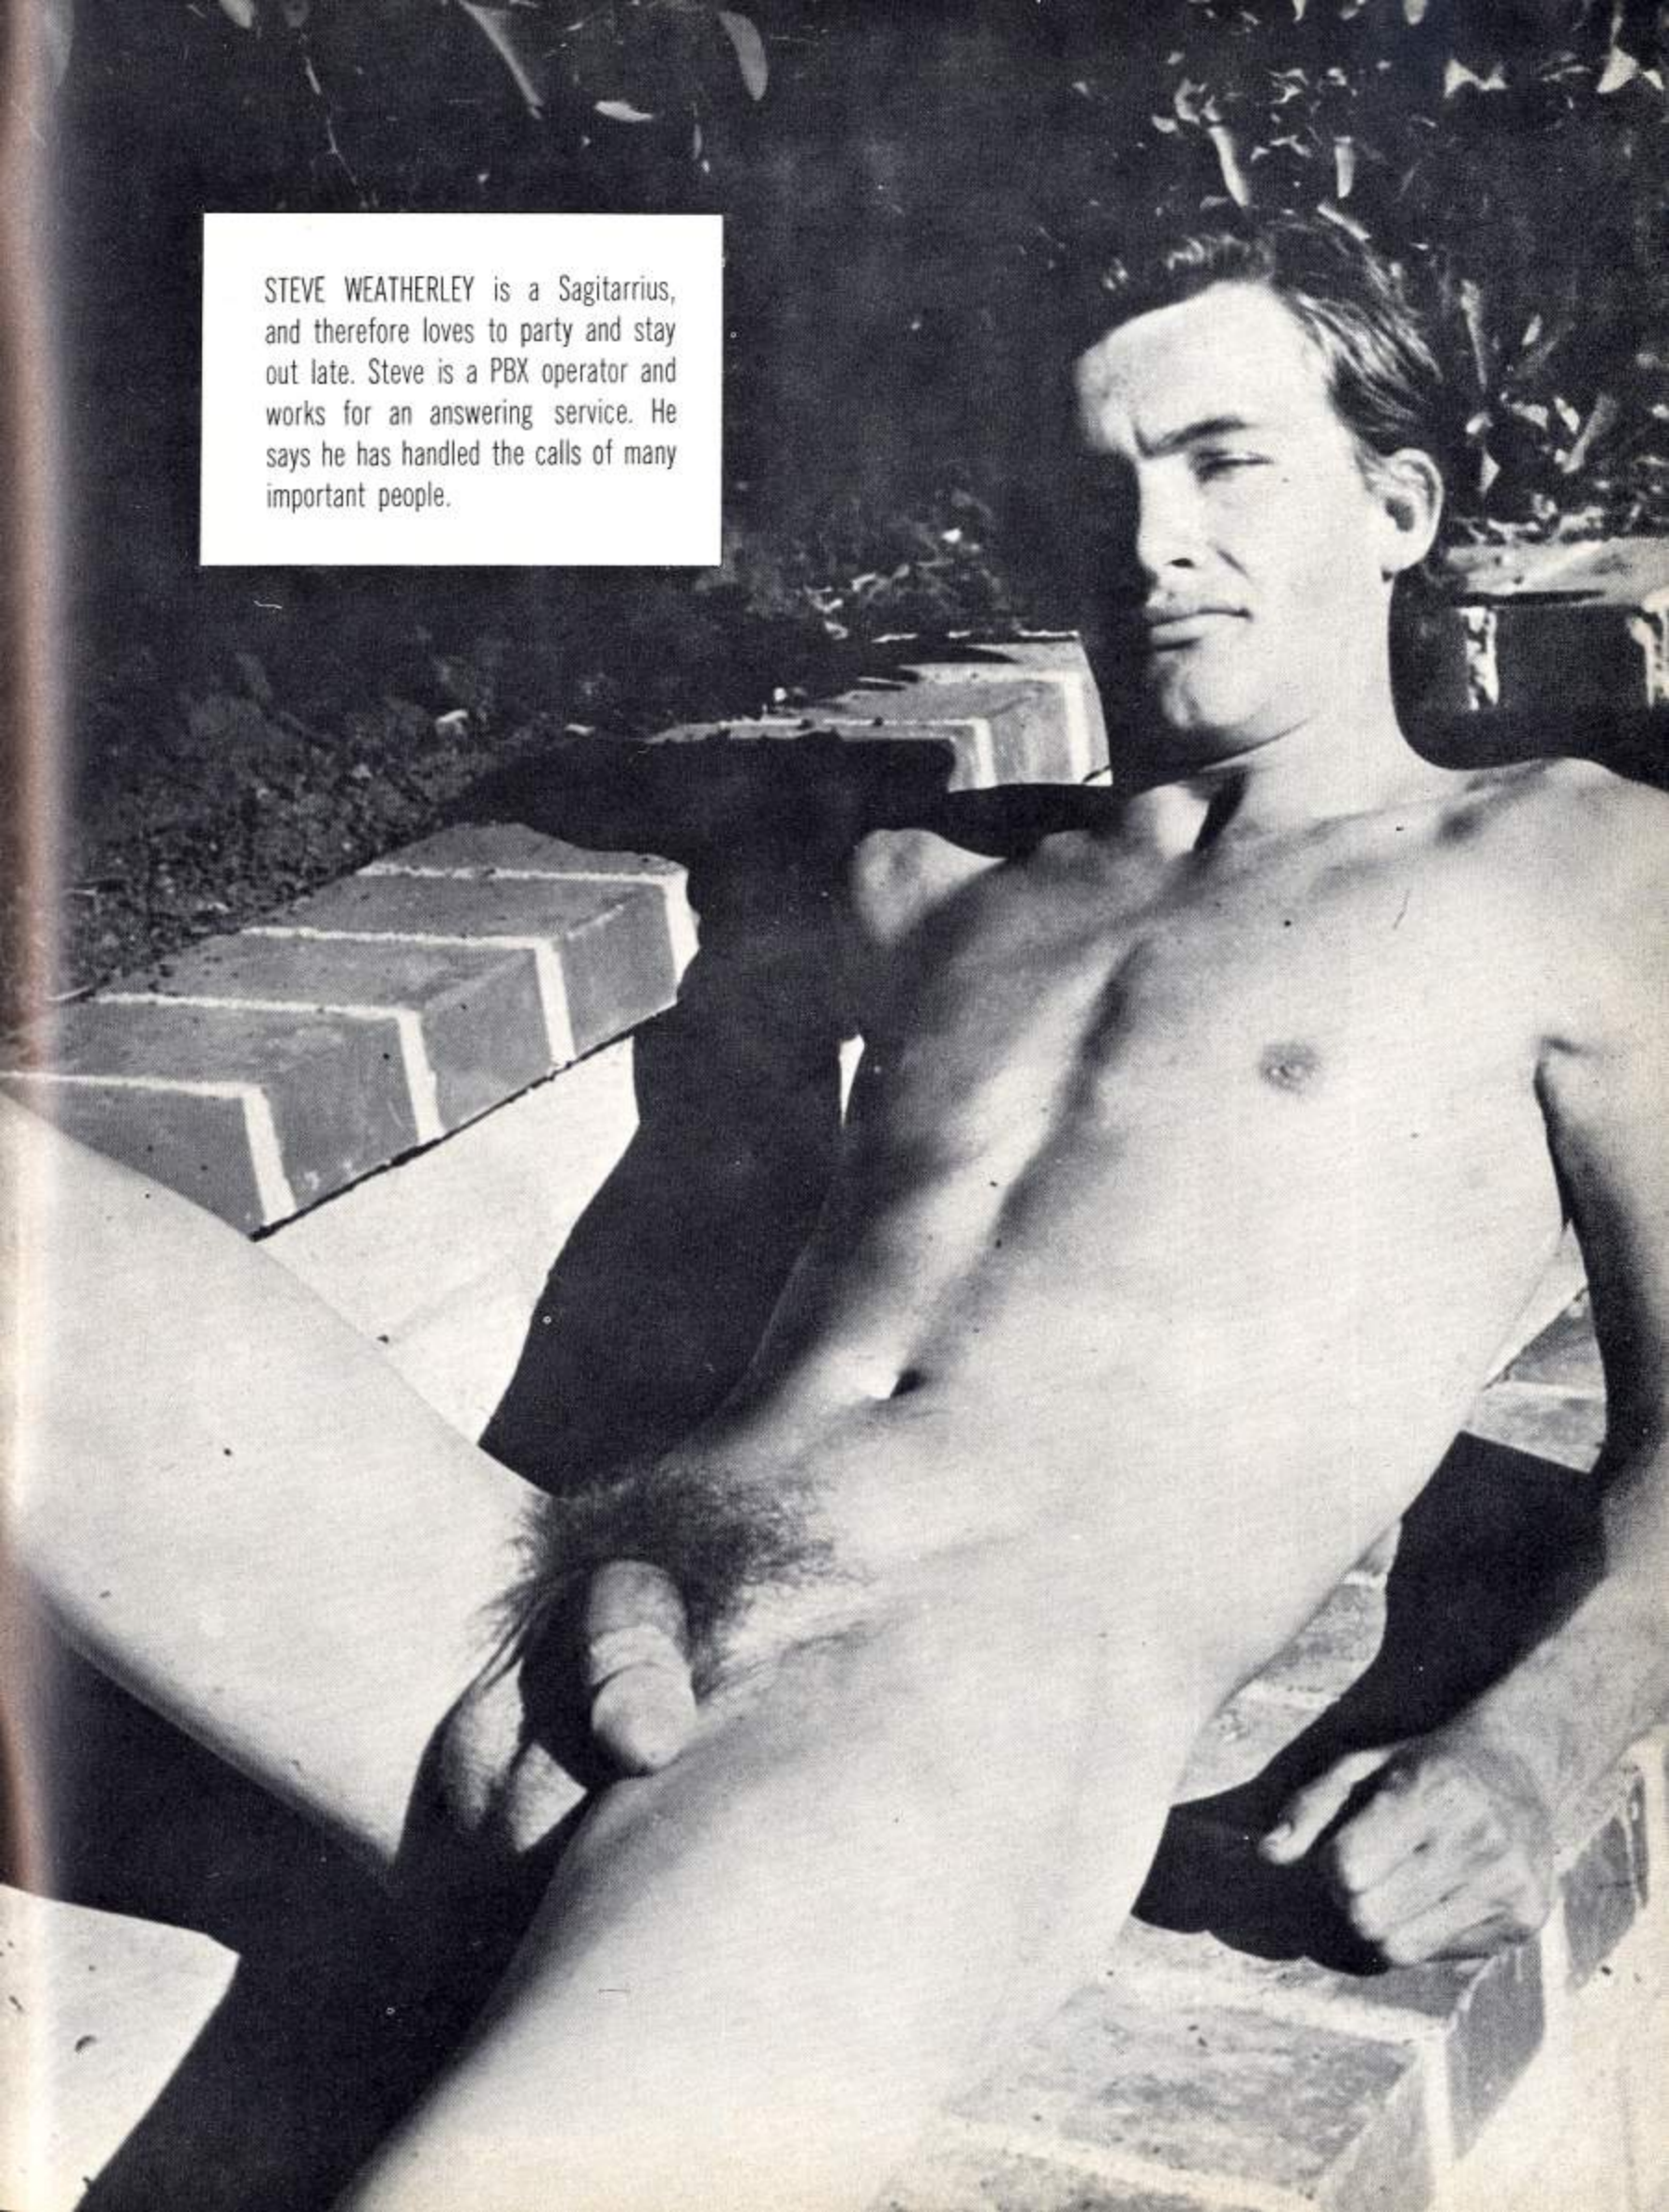

People under the sign of Gemini love to travel and so does GLENN BENNETT. He says that he is a vagabond at heart. It would be hard to say where and what Glenn is doing now, but you can bet that he is enjoying it.

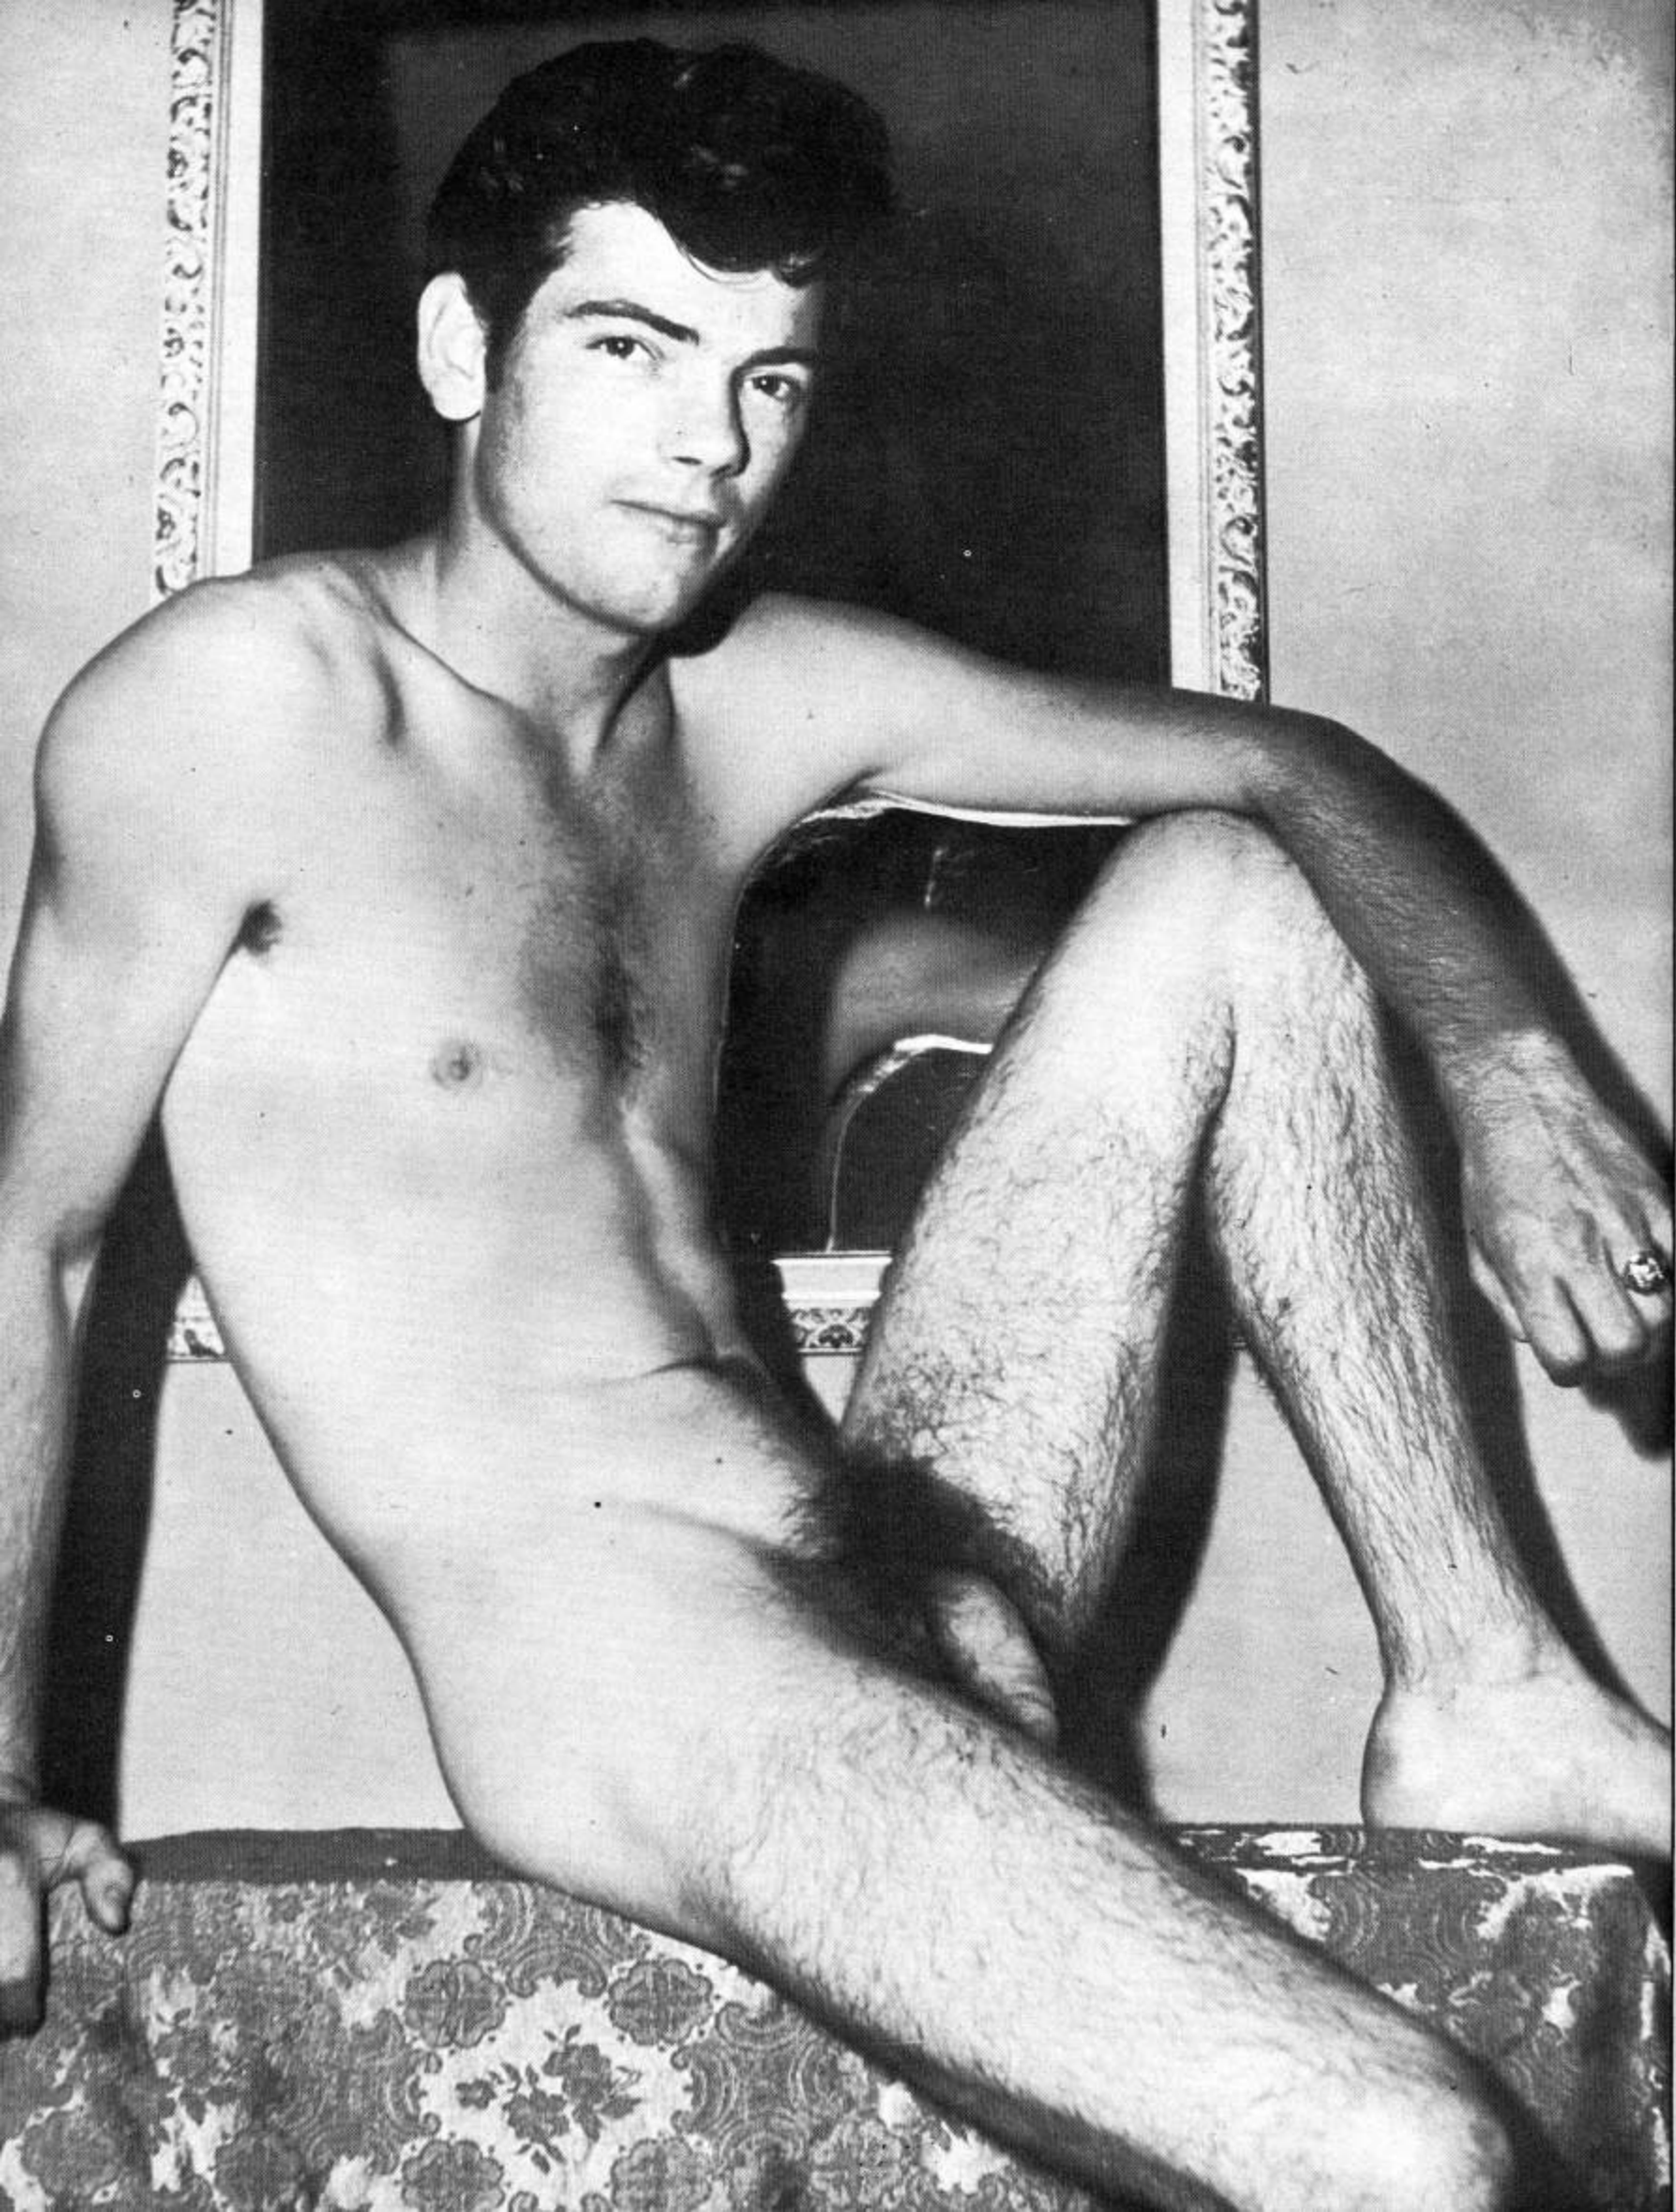

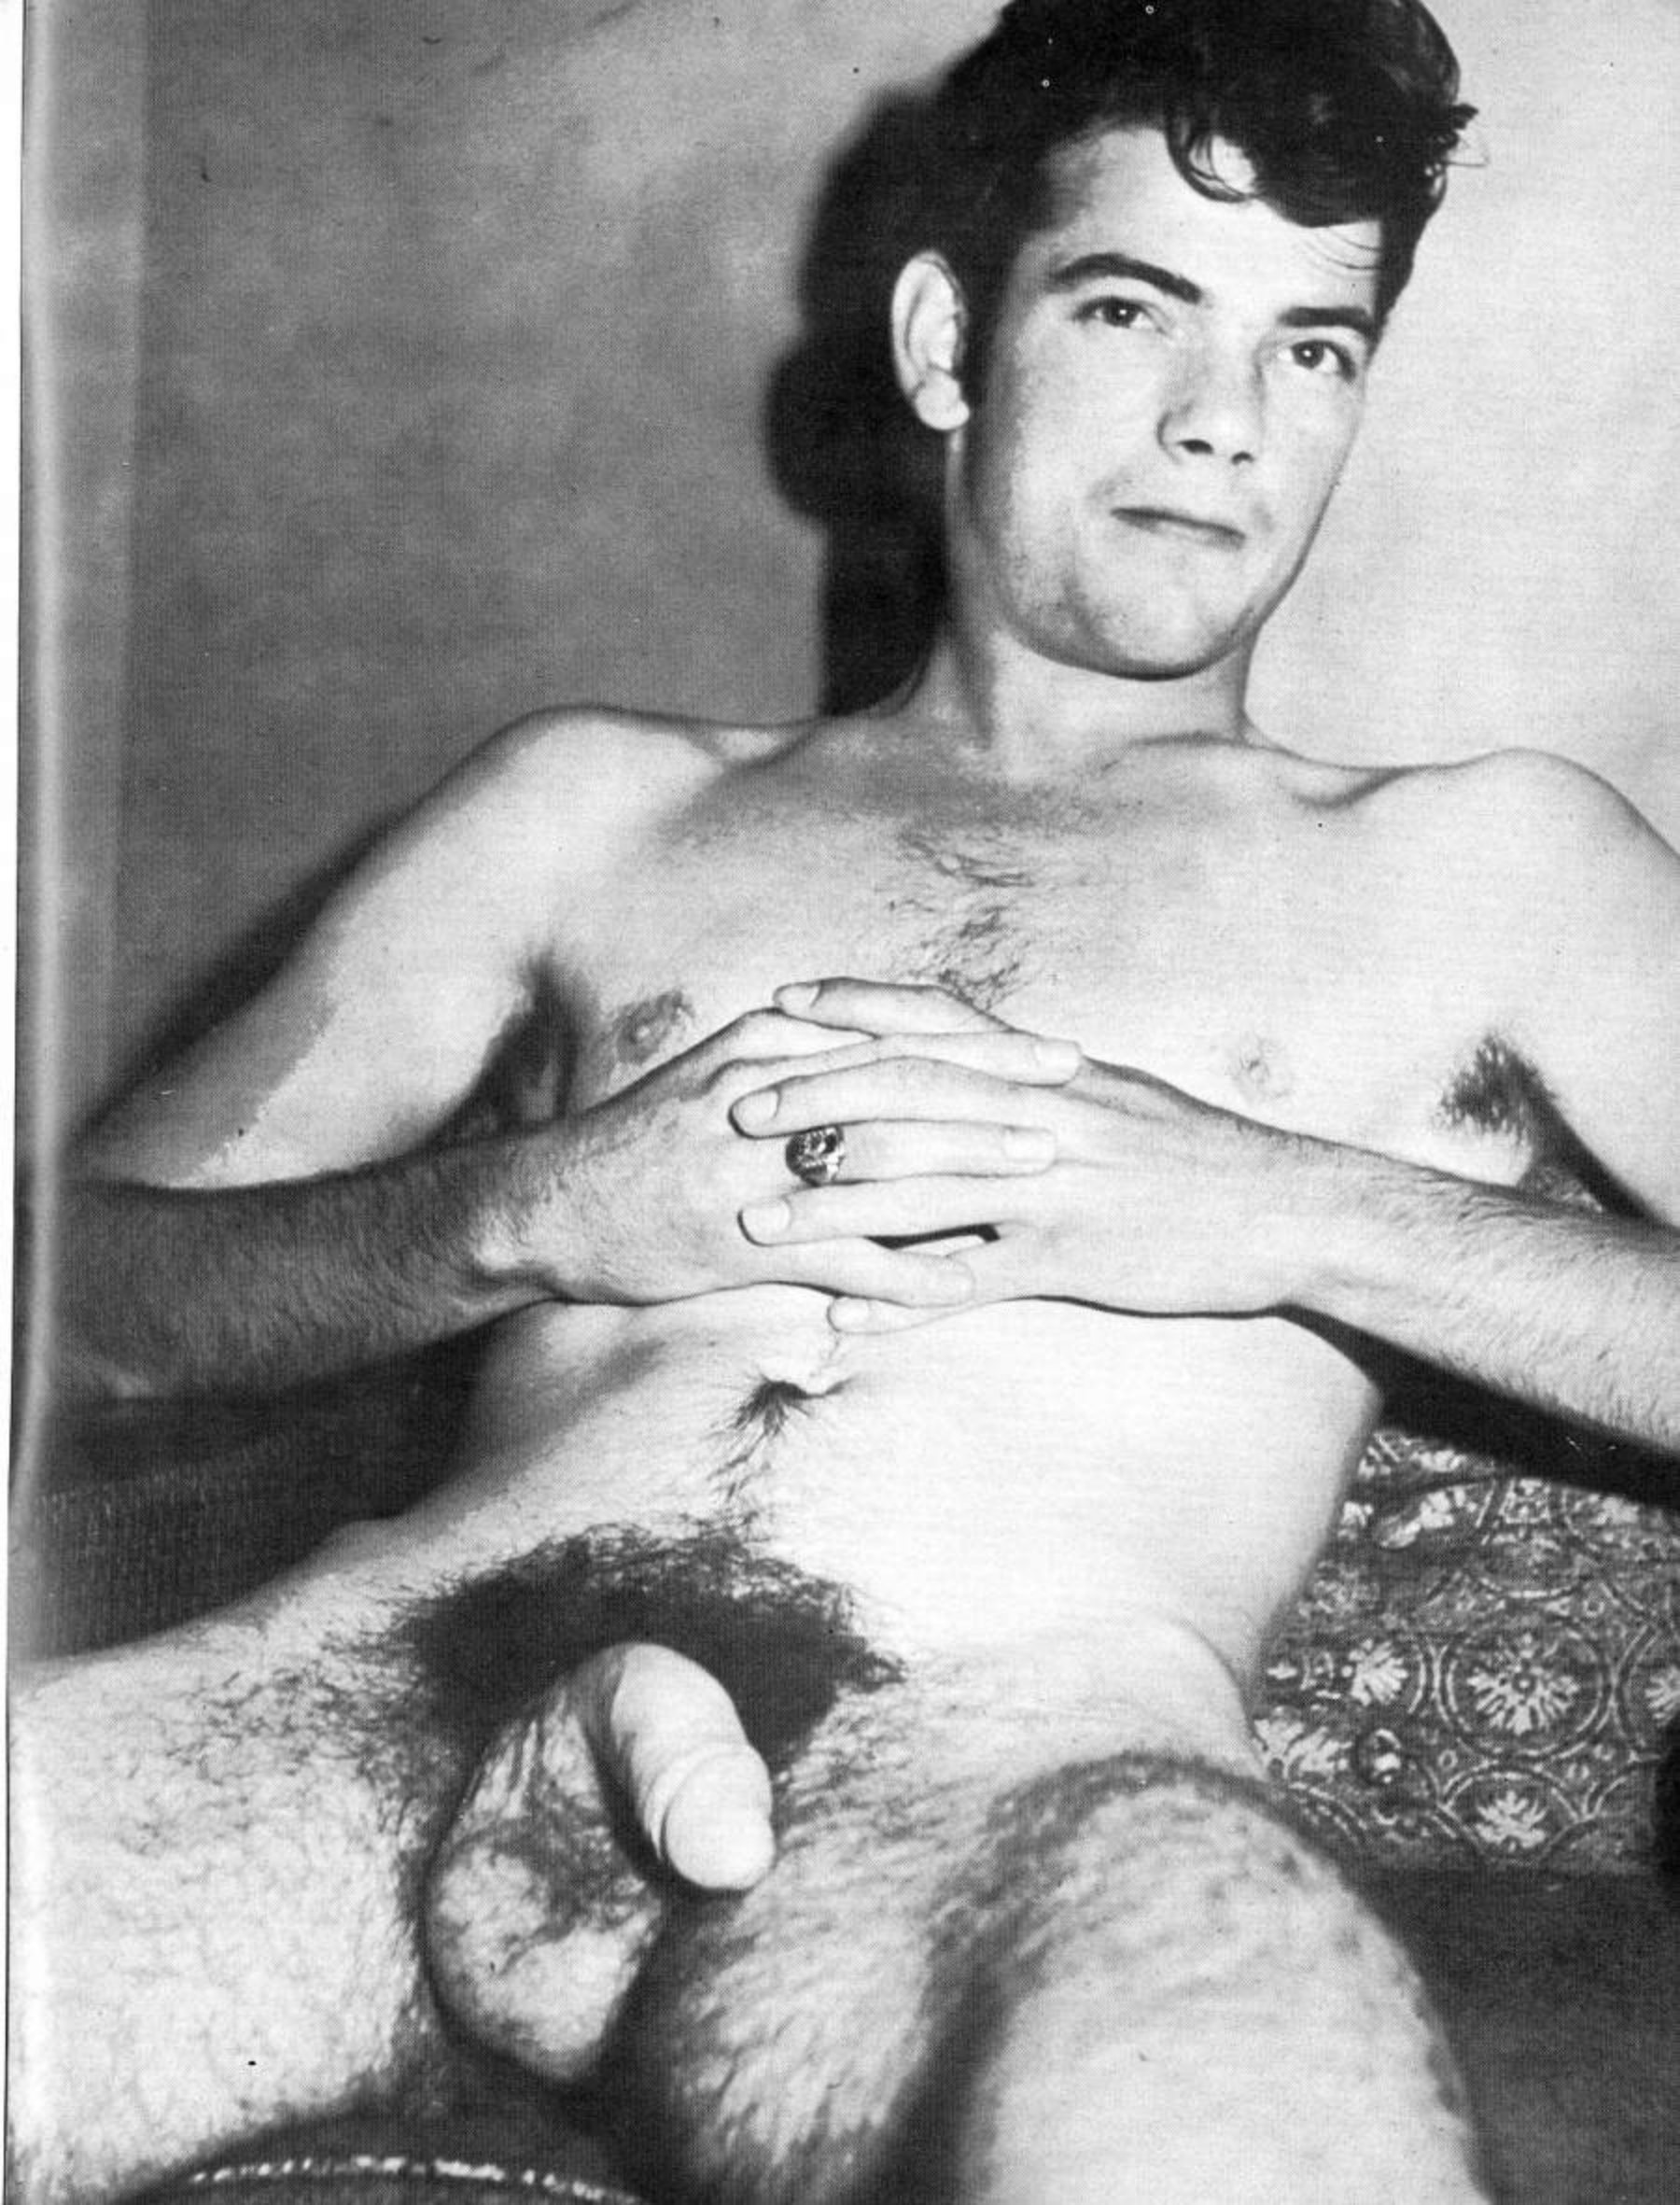

STEVE WEATHERLEY is a Sagittarius, and therefore loves to party and stay out late. Steve is a PBX operator and works for an answering service. He says he has handled the calls of many important people.
